If you feel angry, impatient, or overwhelmed and feel unable to stop the relentless internal revving, there is a better way to live. Living With Your Heart At Rest invites you to step out of the blender and into deep soul rest. Cindy Martin offers wisdom gleaned on the rocky road of reality. When strained relationships, tight finances, unforgiveness, and frenetic daily schedules converge to assault the soul, Cindy shares with passionate conviction and authentic experience that it is possible to live with your heart at rest ... before you're laid to rest.

Everyone comes from different walks of life doing whatever we were taught or observed growing up, however it's very important to have structure and order in our lives, homes, neighborhoods, ministries, workplaces.... We should know the proper way to conduct ourselves, also teach our children to do the same and realize this world does not revolve around just you or me, thus being mindful of other people in our midst. WHAT HAPPENED TO THE DAYS WHERE EVERYONE TREATED THEIR FELLOW MAN WITH LOVE AND RESPECT? God would be very pleased if we behaved in a manner that glorified Him. This book unzips an abundance of tools and other resources to help you maneuver and maximize your lives more effectively and provides instructions on how to be considerate of others in various situations and environments.

This easily accessible translation and commentary by Thich Nhat Hanh on the Sutra on Knowing the Better Way To Live Alone, is the earliest teaching of the Buddha on living fully in the present moment. "To live alone" doesn't mean to isolate oneself from society. It means to live in mindfulness: to let go of the past and the future, and to look deeply and discover the true nature of all that is taking place in the present moment. To fully realize this is to meet our appointment with life and to experience peace, joy, and happiness this realization brings. A wonderful addition to the library of anyone interested in Buddhist studies. "Our appointment with life is in the present moment. The place of our appointment is right here, in this very place." Thich Nhat Hanh in Our Appointment with Life

Why do you want to live in your vehicle? To travel wherever you want, working 6 months and then living on what you saved for 6 months? What is it that drives you to see all the beautiful sights this country has to offer? To go on an adventure and do the things you've always wanted to do? No stress, no utility bills, no rent. Just car maintenance and insurance. Fuel and food. Waking up in a different place, doing whatever you feel like doing. Napping in the sunlight in some Arizona national forest, not having to work again until next spring. You've not a care until then. Ask yourself then, why have you not done it yet? What fears are holding you back?- Essential car living checklist for all your basic needs.- Tips on where to park, finding water, obtaining free WiFi and how to stay safe thousands of miles from home.- Craft and emergency survival kit for less than $30 in case SHTF- Learn how to live on the road- Learn how to stay clean no matter where you go- Become a nomad with a step by step plan for beginning life on the road And much more! I wrote this book after being a car nomad myself, and just recently this year. As of writing this book, I am living in my car again. The advice is from experience. Proven and tested experience. In this book I've shared stories of my travels and give you advice on where to start. As always beloved reader, it all starts with you. Your journey is up to you!
