Their lives were disrupted and they were terrified by something unidentifiable and unimaginable. They were a focus for The Uninvited. The story you are about to read is true, though you will doubt it. With good reason. This is the story of an ordinary family caught up in the extraordinary, for whom the impossible became possible, the unbelievable became believable, and science fiction became science fact. Still the Shadows is a terrifying look into the darkness. This book includes four chilling tales designed to make your pulse race.

Have you ever felt there was something else out there? Have you ever felt you could do more for the world than what you thought was being done already? Have you ever felt like you weren't quite meeting your potential, but didn't know how to take that extra step towards greatness? Have you ever thought about what you might do if suddenly all those questions had answers? I hadn't. I also did not believe in love at first sight or soul mates. I just wanted to lead a quiet, inconspicuous, normal life. Until the day she walked through my classroom door and everything changed.

This is one of the most important books ever written on the clandestine world of the UFO cover-up. Grant Cameron and Scott Crain do more than demonstrate the reality of an extraterrestrial presence on Earth. Through tenacious investigation and impeccable research, they shine a light into the CIA, NSA, Air Force, Navy, and other inside groups that have managed this secret for decades. Their conclusion is inescapable and shocking: this is a secret that the insiders themselves struggle to understand and contain. "Government agencies, at various times, perceive a need to release some UFO information to the public. Some, definitely not all. How do they do it? Always via avenues that leave no one at risk. That means ensuring there is no direct connection between the agency and whomever is doing the actual releasing. It also means the necessity of mixing in some false information. It means, ultimately, to tell the truth, but tell it with a slant. Until there is a full disclosure of the UFO/ET reality, deniability will remain paramount to those in possession of this great secret." - By the authors, from the book's Introduction.

For those who know... that something is going on... The witnesses are legion, scattered across the world and dotted through history, people who looked up and saw something impossible lighting up the night sky. What those objects were, where they came from, and who—or what—might be inside them is the subject of fierce debate and equally fierce mockery, so that most who glimpsed them came to wish they hadn't. Most, but not everyone. Among those who know what they've seen, and—like the toll of a bell that can't be unring—are forever changed by it, are a pilot, an heiress, a journalist, and a prisoner of war. From the waning days of the 20th century's final great war to the fraught fields of Afghanistan to the otherworldly secrets hidden amid Nevada's dusty neverlands—the truth that is out there will propel each of them into a labyrinth of otherworldly technology and the competing aims of those who might seek to prevent—or harness—these beings of unfathomable power. Because, as it turns out, we are not the only ones who can invent and build...and destroy. Featuring actual events and other truths drawn from sources within the military and intelligence community, Tom DeLonge and A.J. Hartley offer a tale at once terrifying, fantastical, and perhaps all too real. Though it is, of course, a work of... fiction?

Are you one of those who believe that the UFO ships people are seeing all the time are from another world? Do you believe people from billions of miles away leave their families, children and homeland on a one way venture to see if our cattle have genitals? Are you one that believes earth is so important to someone so far away that they would risk everything to "visit" us and never bother to let us know officially that they were here? Certainly after centuries of "sightings" these people are not so stupid as to think we thought they were in a flying potato. Let me ask you a different question. After seeing the many "survivors of these craft, are you one that believes life forms independently evolving across the galaxies would have the same 2 eyes, 2 nostrils, 2 ears, two arms, two legs, one head, one neck, a chest and rump? Would these beings talk through vocal cords and walk and sit and turn their heads just like humans do when? Given that scenario, are there any differences between men and roaches, spiders, octopus, whales, Aye-Ayes, and slugs? Certainly those beings evolving with us would be more like us than those across a galaxy. With that let me just say, pilots that fly UFOs are human and there is plenty of proof.

"I will follow you to hell. You will never control any treasure and your army is dead where they stand. I promise you I will reach down from the heavens and take each of their lives". Imagine for a moment you are skiing downhill racing ahead of an avalanche, your chest is pounding, pulse racing. That is what you will experience reading this story as the momentum builds, and your heart beats faster and faster. You will be absorbed into the lives of the characters, becoming a part of the action even after the ending. There are struggles between honor and greed, right and wrong, battlefields are soaked crimson over them. It makes you think and question 'What if?' due to the possibilities and theories contained within. It is purely fictional though based on a trilogy of poems I wrote.
