This Manual, which updates the first edition published in 1986, is a major advance in the standards for compilation and presentation of fiscal statistics. It is intended as a reference volume for compilers of government finance statistics, fiscal analysts, and other users of fiscal data. The Manual introduces accrual accounting, balance sheets, and complete coverage of government economic and financial activities. It covers concepts, definitions, classifications, and accounting rules, and provides a comprehensive framework for analysis, planning, and policy determination. To the extent possible, the Manual has been harmonized with the System of National Accounts 1993.

The Cold War from Reading Through History is a collaborative effort of two Oklahoma classroom teachers with more than twenty-five years of teaching experience at the secondary level. It is intended to be a resource manual for teachers and parents that would make an excellent accompaniment for any history or reading class, whether in a public school, private school, or home school environment. The Cold War includes many tools to help teachers and parents facilitate their children's learning experience as they read. The guide features historical lessons related to a wide range of topics from the Cold War Era, including the Rise and Fall of Communism in Russia, Containment, the Red Scare, the Chinese Civil War, the Korean and Vietnam Conflicts, home front Civil Defense, the Cuban Missile Crisis, spies of the Cold War Era, the Space Race, and the Strategic Arms Limitations Talks. Many of the activities included in the workbook are geared toward guided reading exercises and independent student responses with the Core Curriculum skills in mind. Exercises in vocabulary help to reinforce each lesson, while free response questions challenge students to consider each historical topic in new ways, and in many cases, consider how they would have reacted, or would react, if placed in similar situations.
