Have you always wondered why your life tends to go in the same patterns over and over again? Have you been trying to escape from the same old patterns, year after year, to no avail? If so, then keep reading... You may need Vedic astrology to begin deciphering your life. Vedic astrology dictates that everything that you do in life is influenced by the positions of the stars and Planets at the moment of your birth. It asserts that you are born according to karmic justice and judgment and that karma is written out into the stars at that exact moment. For this reason, people have turned to the skies for thousands upon thousands of years to begin to decipher the karmic workings and understand why their lives work the way that they do. Karma is the sum of your actions in this life and in past lives, all of which is designed to bring you closer to liberation-that point in your life where you are able to become connected to the Universe and freed from the endless cycle of rebirth and death that we live in. It is something that you can never escape as it is simply the sum and reaction of your actions-it happens whether good or bad, and you will have to deal with the aftermath either way. However, karma brings with it lessons that are designed to help you achieve that liberation in life. Because karma can influence every aspect of your life and because it is written in the stars, you can begin to understand why you go through what you experience and how likely that you are to succeed or fail in all sorts of aspects of your life. You just have to open up your mind, look to your birth chart, and begin to interpret it. This has been used for thousands of years to determine matchmaking, success, business ventures, and more. Let your knowledge in Astrology Empower you to walk with confidence and Ease. Add ABCs of Astrology for Beginners to your cart TODAY! Most introductory astrology books, such as this one, are content to teach you the ABC's of astrology: Planets, signs, houses, aspects, pretty much in that order. You're then congratulated that, by the time you reach the end of the book, you can look up the individual pieces and spit out canned interpretations, by rote. Vivian Robson (1890-1942, a man, by the way), expected better. Here is an example: Having found the significator of the matter concerned interpret all aspects to it as things and people affecting it. Suppose Jupiter were chief significator of money and afflicted by Saturn. We should judge that money matters would be hampered by poor conditions, depressing surroundings, ill-health, or whatever Saturn signified in that horoscope. In other words, we should give Jupiter the chief consideration as significator of the matter enquired into, and interpret the action of Saturn in its relation to Jupiter, and not vice-versa. On the other hand if Saturn were the significator we should judge that fits of generosity or extravagance would affect the finances, because Jupiter is expansive in its action, and its afflicting aspect would cause trouble and loss. This general judgment is then refined by taking into account the sign and house occupied by the aspecting planet, and the houses it rules. Thus, suppose with Saturn as significator that Jupiter threw an adverse aspect from the 5th house. Then we should judge that the extravagance would arise from too much indulgence in pleasure, or from gambling, or other matters ruled by the 5th house. This would be modified by the sign containing Jupiter. A water sign would incline more to self-indulgence, a fiery one to gambling, a sign ruled by Venus to expenditure on women, and so on, thus enabling us to enlarge on the judgement obtained from the house position alone. We should next look to see what houses Jupiter ruled. If it ruled the 3rd we should judge expense and extravagance over journeys, relatives and other third house matters, and by blending the influences, that gambling losses (5th) would come through the advice of relatives (3rd) or some other appropriate blending. . . . This, however, is not the only way the influences would work. . . . There is method to be used, and it is one which needs considerable practice, but it is well-worth the trouble involved, and the student will himself be amazed to find how accurately the most trifling details may be predicted. As a word of advice to the beginner I would say - Do not be afraid to let yourself go in this way. You will make many mistakes to start with, but it is the only way to make your Astrology of practical use. There is too great a tendency nowadays to float about in a comfortable haze of so-called esotericism. The first need of Astrology is accuracy and definition, not pseudo-religious speculation, and it is only by concentrating on the practical and scientific side that we can really make Astrology of service, and obtain for it the recognition it deserves. (pgs. 110-113: go have a look) Someday a picture of the man will be found. Until then, read his books!
