Simplified Chinese edition of A Raisin in the Sun
Forfatteren, der voksede op som medlem af den privilegerede elite i Maos Kina og senere blev forstødt under kulturrevolutionen i 1960'erne, fortæller sin families historie gennem tre generationer og giver hermed et billede af Kinas historie i 1900-tallet.

This Chinese language edition contains information which may be needed in the context of the theory of music examination, and it includes specimen questions and exercises, and guidance on their solutions. It is aimed to provide a foundation for anyone wishing to understand music theory.

Practicing Mathematics for BGCSE Success was designed specifically for seniors sitting the Mathematics BGCSE examination. This book is the first of 3 resources used in preparation for the exam. It provides practice questions typically found on paper 1 of the examination. The concept of 'practicing' helps students to become more familiar with the topics covered, and hence it is believed that it leads to better success in the exam. Students are highly encouraged to purchase books 1,2 and 3 for maximum results. This series is authored by Mrs. Paula Burrows, a Mathematics teacher employed by the Ministry of Education in the Bahamas for the past 20 years.

These two single-volume textbooks work through the Intermediate and Higher Tiers, including Grade A* .

This publication, a collaboration between the Inter-American Development Bank and the University of The Bahamas, presents the findings of a study of sentenced inmates at the prison in The Bahamas known at the Department of Correctional Services Facility, Fox Hill. The materials provide invaluable insight into public policy to further support the transformation of citizen security in The Bahamas. Robust and reliable information is needed to effectively diagnose, plan, carry out, and monitor correctional policies. The data generated by this publication and its underlying research are key inputs for the IDB’s Citizen Security and Justice Knowledge Strategy, which aims to better inform the public debate and decision makers about institutional

English Language and Literature: Cross Cultural Currents is a collection of essays that interrogate the precarious positions of English and African languages in an era in which English is increasingly becoming the dominant language in Africa while at the same time there is a growing resistance against it. Though many Africans take pride in their own cultural heritage that is expressed by their African languages, they require the economic and social benefits of English. The book presents a language dilemma in which both African languages and English enhance, inhibit, and influence each other. The data used by the authors spans a broad spectrum of sources including: fiction, courts, parliamentary Hansards, House of Chiefs, classrooms, internet, roads and bus ranks. Thus, it is reflective of the most and least educated, the most and least influential Africans. The presentations provide broad insights about African symbols, metaphors, imagery and folklores representing undocumented literature that challenge scientific
