Barack Obama's victory came when he participated in running for public office in 2008. Now since he's been sworn in and made a difference during his term in office from 2009 through 2012, will he be able to sway thousands, perhaps millions of voters on each side during the 2012 re-election to support his endeavor for four more years? I hope that this book will influence people around the nation especially when America's First African American President under the constitution took the stage to help rebuild social, economic and political change in America.
