

Bitten The Full Moon Book By Raul Garcia Cornelia

It's the final countdown to world domination. So I accidentally released Clayone, the Original Werewolf, which one would think would be the worst of my troubles... Oh, how wrong one would be. Gram and Uncle Mark, who happens to be my dad (I'm still reeling about that one), just informed me that I'm from a long line of Druids, and according to some prophecy I'm the Celtic Goddess Brigit reincarnated. I'm not even remotely magical, let alone a Goddess, but one of my friend's is already dead and another one's been bitten. For now, Clayone's trapped in a church, too weak to leave, but on the eve of Samhain, October 31, during the Super Blue Blood Moon's lunar eclipse, he will be more powerful than he's been in a thousand years. Lucky me. If he can destroy the reincarnated goddess while she's in human form, the werewolves' curses of imprisonment--the silver bullet and the full moon--will be lifted, and the unbridled reign of the werewolf will begin at last. The fate of the world is in my hands, but the real question is, do I actually believe I'm Brigit, a reincarnated goddess, and if so, will I lock Clayone back in the hell where he came from before it's too late? I think we all know the answers to those questions. All I really know is that the full moon has never looked so terrifying. Begin the NOW COMPLETED six book series everyone is talking about. Anton abhors the beast he must learn to tame if he is to find peace. Lady Amelia Andrassy is an accomplished pianist, but her life in Budapest had been filled with heartache. When Amelia faints in the Duma's bookstore, it's Anton's strong arms that cradle her fall.
