A comprehensive guide to making better capital structure and corporate financing decisions in today's dynamic business environment. Given the dramatic changes that have recently occurred in the economy, the topic of capital structure and corporate financing decisions is critically important. The fact is that firms need to constantly revisit their portfolio of debt, equity, and hybrid securities to finance assets, operations, and future growth. Capital Structure and Corporate Financing Decisions provides an in-depth examination of critical capital structure topics, including discussions of basic capital structure components, key theories and practices, and practical application in an increasingly complex corporate world. Throughout, the book emphasizes how a sound capital structure simultaneously minimizes the firm's cost of capital and maximizes the value to shareholders. Offers a strategic focus that allows you to understand how financing decisions relates to a firm's overall corporate policy. Consists of contributed chapters from both academics and experienced professionals, offering a variety of perspectives and a rich interplay of ideas. Contains information from survey research describing actual financial practices of firms. This valuable resource takes a practical approach to capital structure by discussing why various theories make sense and how firms use them to solve problems and create wealth. In the wake of the recent financial crisis, the insights found here are essential to excelling in today's volatile business environment.

Business Accounting and Finance for Non Specialists is aimed at non-specialist students of accounting and finance on a first course in the subject. It gives a lively and wide-ranging survey of the basic principles of finance, financial accounting and management accounting. The unique approach taken in the first Section of the book is to look at small to medium sized business organisations and their role in the economy ? how they are set up, factors in their success and failure and how they source funds for expansion. This leads to discussion of the role of financial markets and their need for financial information. Sections 2 and 3 then give an account of financial and management accounting principles, respectively. The text is clearly written and technical jargon is minimal - any technical terms are clearly explained and a glossary of terms is provided. The book does not present the hurdle of double-entry bookkeeping at an early stage ? students can progress through the book without double-entry. Illustrative case studies and reference to real-life business examples are used to bring the technical information to life. Business Accounting and Finance for Non-specialists includes a large number of worked examples, to give students valuable practice in using their new skills. Other pedagogic elements include aims and learning outcomes, summaries, Case Studies with questions and solutions, individual learning activities, self-test questions with answers provided in the book, and exercises - the answers to which are divided between the book and the Lecturer's Guide/Website. Business Accounting and Finance for Non Specialists is aimed at non-specialist students of accounting and finance on a first course in the subject. This revision guide is intended to serve as a complement to the textbook. Its aim is essentially to provide past examination questions set by the Institute of Bankers and the examiners' own answers together with past questions set at the City of London Polytechnic and other questions, with their answers. This gives the reader a wider range of topics which reflects the contents of the textbook, and permits of selectivity to meet need. It is suggested that as each textbook chapter is read, the relevant section in the Revision Guide should be attempted in order to test knowledge and understanding, thereby further enhancing the learning process. To facilitate this, the guide is set out section by section, to match the chapters in the textbook. Several sections are prefaced by introductions to bridge the gap between textbook and questions. In addition, questions are presented in succeeding order of difficulty so that readers can move from the less to the more complex at their own speed. November 1985 L. Waxman vii Passing the Examination The Banking Diploma Stage 2 Examination Finance of International Trade. The Institute of Bankers Diploma examinations take place twice yearly, in April and September. Prospective candidates who wish to prepare themselves as thoroughly as possible and who are using the associated textbook to this revision guide will find the question and answers which it contains an indispensable means of preparation for the examination paper "Finance of International Trade".

CASES PROBLEMS IN FINANCE, 2e is designed to be used in conjunction with a standard introductory financial management textbook or as the foundation for an introductory case course. The cases may also be used as reinforcement of theory in an intermediate finance course. The purpose of the casebook is to reinforce and expand upon the theoretical material learned in the introductory undergraduate business finance course. The cases are concise directed and designed to generate discussion, focusing upon three elements: industry and company setting; the underlying financial theory; and the particular decision at hand, giving students the opportunity to make decisions based on situations that closely replicate decisions faced by practicing managers. The cases are considered directed because end-of-case questions are included that highlight the major decision points that need to be addressed, helping students come to a final business decision.

This is an excellent resource for entrepreneurs. There are numerous financial problems, including unanticipated tax concerns, that may cost you dearly whether you're just starting, striving to develop, or have a well-established and profitable firm. Some of them might even cost you your company. This book will give you the answers you need, and also answer questions many business owners never think to ask.
