Following his writings on artists like Da Vinci, van Gogh, Gauguin, Michelangelo, Jiang Xun continues his oeuvre on artists. He paints the founder of French impressionists Claude Monet in this volume with the sensitivity of an aesthetician. Jiang, an accomplished essayist, stayed and studied Monet at the artist's homestead Giverny, poured over volumes on Monet and studied his paintings, to offer a complete image of the artist whose style is vibrant, filled with life and light. In Chinese.
