Describes the organization and activities of the Inquisition in Cartagena de Indias (now in Colombia), which functioned between 1610-88. Ch. 4 (p. 115-141), "Judaizantes", deals with the persecution of the Conversos. The Conversos were of Portuguese origin, most of them merchants, who entered the country illegally, and whose commercial activities were connected to Holland, at that time in conflict with Spain. The Conversos' success aroused fear in the Church and among the civil authorities, who began to investigate their lives, finding that most of them were Judaizers. 84 Conversos were tried by the Inquisition in Cartagena. They were jailed or executed, and their property was expropriated.

Armed with imagination, ingenuity, and an adoration of the city of Cartagena de Indias, the authors of this book attached a photographic camera to a remote control helicopter and succeeded at portraying this amazing city of yesteryear from remarkable heights. Due in large part to its military fortresses, city walls, and bastions, Cartagena de Indias is one of the most stunning cities in the world. Photographing it from the air makes it possible for the first time to capture in images the infrastructure and grandeur of this so-called "Heroic City." Con imaginación, ingenio, y un amor para Cartagena de Indias, los autores de este maravilloso libro adecuaron una cámara fotográfica a un helicóptero manejado a control remoto y lograron este retrato sorprendente de esta ciudad de antaño desde las alturas. Debido a sus instalaciones militares y imponentes fortificaciones, Cartagena de Indias es una de las ciudades más impresionantes del mundo. La fotografía del aire lo hace posible ver en una imagen el plan entero de la llamada ciudad "Heroica."
