BUSINESS LAW TODAY: COMPREHENSIVE follows the same successful model as the other titles in the Business Law Today series - providing the legal credibility, authoritativeness, and comprehensiveness of a traditional business law book, while also offering the visual appeal and high-interest, motivating features students are used to seeing in books for many of their other courses. Though the text is "fun" for students to read, it does not accomplish this at the expense of detailed and thorough coverage. The book truly offers an instructor the best of both worlds ? a credible business law source, which students will be motivated to read. This text features excerpted (language of the court) cases and includes additional contracts chapters and those chapters necessary for students taking the CPA exam, making this text the most appropriate Business Law Today version for accounting students. This text explicitly meets the AACSB curriculum requirements.
