I always wanted to be successful among women, to flirt with beauties, cheerfully and easy to become acquainted, and generally feel myself a worthy man. I'm sure this is a normal desire, inherent in all men. While studying at a prestigious university, I played hockey, and I had a favorite girl with whom I felt well, and whom I planned to marry. However, life made its own adjustments to my script. At the moment when I thought everything was fine, my girlfriend cheated on me and we parted ways. I was injured, my hockey player career went to the bottom, and in a deep depression, I was expelled from university. It was after painful betrayal that I realized I had been cowering in my comfort zone for a long time. I had not developed myself as a man. I caught myself at the terrible thought that I absolutely did not understand women. I did not know how to become acquainted with them or interact. For me, it was a challenge to squeeze out, "Hello." Not to mention dating and seduction. For a long time, I felt absolutely apathy and did not know what to do. When I had to choose whether to become a slave of chance and circumstance or become master of my own destiny and repair the situation at the root, I got down to business. I have been going out on the streets, in parks, and cafes to meet girls for 4-5 hours. I received a lot of refusals, but the inner conviction that there was nowhere to fall further, and the desire to prove I'm worth something as a man helped me withstand a period of stress, awkward situations, and hundreds of "No." A few years later, dating became quite a natural process for me., I better understood women and had success in seduction. Further, I honed the skill of meeting women to the worked-out actions that were given easily, as soon as I understood the female psychology and the main question of "what do they want?." This realization brought me to a completely new level, and I began to enjoy the process of dating, communication, and seduction of beautiful women. Parallel to my successes in communication with women, developing self-confidence, leadership, and charisma, I launched a number of businesses and reached a state where I could devote most of my time to self-development, hobbies, and travel. Many friends began to ask me for advice and for help in dealing with women. Helping them, I realized I like to share experiences with men whose emotions are so familiar to me, so I decided to share key insights and practical advice in my books. In this book, I formulate four key stages that inevitably lead you to seduce women, namely: -an acquaintance; -a date; -rapprochement; -going to your place. I try to present the most useful beliefs and psychological tricks to understand how best to invite a girl to a date, where to go, what to talk about, how to behave, at what moment to reapproach, and how to correctly and confidently take her home for a mind-blowing night. I'm sure, after reading, you'll understand how much simpler it is than it seems. Applying my advice and principles, you'll seduce a lot of beauties that you are worthy of. You are worth it, buddy!
