What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us. Ralph Waldo Emerson It is only what is discovered that can be recovered. That is why undiscovered and unreleased potential results in unaccomplished destiny. Man is a wonder by virtue of creation. This is because God created man in His image and likeness with all the ability in Him released into man. In other words, everything in God is in man. All the virtues that are inherent in God, The manufacturer are inherent in man His product. This truth becomes our focus of discussion all over this book. The nature of the source from which a product was made determines the component of the product. And since man is a product of God, then he possesses the same component as God, his Source. It is imperative to know that your attitude is largely a product of your self-concept - the picture you have of yourself. The issue of self-concept and self-image must first be establish in our minds before we can really understand the potential inherent in us and release them to fulfill our destiny. God created man in His image; therefore, man is expected to have a concept of himself in line with who God is. In this book, you will gain a full understanding of the great deposit that is loaded into you at creation. Also, you will come to the knowledge of the fact that what you are loaded with in form of potential is given you for the purpose of fulfilling your destiny and become a blessing to the world. I am sure that by the time you are through reading this book, something will spark off a process towards great accomplishment in your life. And you will decide to release yourself to bless mankind by refusing to go to the grave with the great treasures loaded in you.

Who are these Guptas who are so powerful, they're distributing cabinet posts like matrons handing out condoms at a brothel? Who do Americans think they are, accusing Trevor Noah of 'stealing' a joke from one of their comedians? Is Sizakele MaKhumalo Zuma's spaza shop a National Key Point? In #ZuptasMustFall, and other rants, Fred Khumalo runs riot, contemplating the pressing issues that continue to confound, infuriate and exasperate the nation – or to sink it into further controversy. Covering a wide range of topics, including politics, history, current events and celebrity gossip, this compilation of recent and new writings contains Khumalo's trademark blend of humour and shrewd analysis, as well as his treatment of everyday issues from a uniquely South African perspective. This is an entertaining collection of thoughts from one of the country's most seasoned journalists, offering many questions, and tongue-in-cheek answers, on who we are as a nation, where we are going, and how we compare to the rest of the world.

As many have had their hope deferred, and their hearts sickened as a result, The Spirit of Acceleration offers a rekindling of that hope. The Spirit of Acceleration does, in seconds or minutes, what would normally take months or years to accomplish. Wherever the Spirit of Acceleration dawns, God quickens things up. These last days are not a time for despair, but a time for delight, demonstration, and deliverance. According to apostle Peter, it will be a time of "refreshing (and)...restitution of all things" (Acts 3:19""21). This book espouses fundamental principles that guarantee speed and strength for the last-day church before Jesus returns. In this book, God teaches believers to work with wisdom so they can be backed up by kingdom wealth and accomplish God's end-time agenda. The last-day Spirit of Acceleration is God's last push to close the age and herald the return of the Lord Jesus Christ. Only a church militant and on the move, however, can eject the enemy and get victory in life. It takes speed to shine in life and going to manifest his glory! God has saved the best for the last. A glory that is unprecedented is about to shine forth from the church, and it will herald his coming and be characterized by unusual speed and uncommon glory. That is why in Romans 9:28""30, the Bible says "He will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth...(so that)...the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith."

Nigeria has become the arena of one of the most remarkable religious movements of recent times, reflecting the shift in the global center of Christianity from the North to the South. This book tells the story of one sector of this movement from its root in the Nigerian civil war to the turn of the new millenium. It describes a revival that occurred among the Igbo people of Eastern Nigeria and the new Pentecostal churches it generated and documents the changes that have occurred as the movement has responded to global flows and local demands. As such, it explores the nature of revivalist and Pentecostal experience but does so against the backdrop of local socio-political and economic developments, such as decolonization and civil war, as well broader processes, such as modernization and globalization.

It seems extraordinary that Dr Richard Dawkins, who Dr Stephen Hawking implied was an imbecile, was apologising for Albert Einstein. I believe Dawkins was afflicted by delusional self-aggrandisement, which is a form of psychosis and part of the clinical manifestations of latent, progressive dementia. He was not fit to speak for a true genius

In recent decades, Christianity has acquired millions of new adherents in Africa, the region with the world's fastest-expanding population. What role has this development of evangelical Christianity played in Africa's democratic history? To what extent do its churches affect its politics? By taking a historical view and focusing specifically on the events of the past few years, Evangelical Christianity and Democracy in Africa seeks to explore these questions, offering individual case studies of six countries: Nigeria, Zimbabwe, South Africa, Kenya, Zambia, and Mozambique. Unlike most analyses of democracy which come from a secular Western tradition, these contributors, mainly younger scholars based in Africa, bring first-hand knowledge to their chapters and employ both field and archival research to develop their data and analyses. The result is a groundbreaking work that will be indispensable to everyone concerned with the future of this volatile region. Evangelical Christianity and Democracy in Africa is one of four volumes in the series Evangelical Christianity and Democracy in the Global South, which seeks to answer the question: What happens when a revivalist religion based on scriptural orthodoxy participates in the volatile politics of the Third World? At a time when the global-political impact of another revivalist and scriptural religion -- Islam -- fuels vexed debate among analysts the world over, these volumes offer an unusual comparative perspective on a critical issue: the often combustible interaction of resurgent religion and the developing world's unstable politics.

An exploration of the global growth and social and political impact of Pentecostalism.

Africa's plight is no doubt, presently, a concern of notable political and business leaders across the world. I believe this is Africa's time and age in which Africans, African leaders and the rest of the world must put their hands on the plough. And in the natural impossibility of having more than two hands per human, the legs of all must be engaged to follow their hearts. Now is the best time for anyone to help walk Africa out of misery while Africans do the bulk of the work themselves.

Using Nigeria as a model, this book proves that free enterprise will help Africa do for itself if empowered far beyond what the world can do for her. OTHER

I have always been fascinated by the story of the lion being the king of the jungle, and through the benefit of hindsight, the inspiration to do this mini secret of success book was as a result of the might and grace the grace of the lion. On May 19, 2014 few days to my birthday, I wrote an elaborate piece in my column for BUSINESS WORLD in my segment called Business world on His Highness

UAE Vice President, Prime Minister and Ruler of Dubai His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, titled: MAN BEHIND EMIRATE AIRLINE. Few days later, on my birthday, MAY 29TH 2014 I got a parcel as birthday present and in the neatly wrapped pack was a big book by the subject matter himself, Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum, the voluminous book titled: MY VISION, Challenges in the Race for Excellence. I love what I saw at the back of the book about the Lion and the gazelle as researched by the author.: "With each new day in Africa, a gazelle wakes up knowing he must outrun the fastest lion or perish. At the same time, a lion stirs and stretches, knowing he must outrun the fastest gazelle or starve. It is no different for the human race. Whether you consider yourself a gazelle or a lion, you simply have to run faster than others to survive. "In His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum viewpoint, life consist of a number of opportunities and greater opportunities do not come knocking on people doors. Whoever wants such opportunities must grab them when they arise, for his people and for himself. We have to be powerful, strong-willed, determined and willing to grasp such opportunities, so that we do not have to scavenge the leftovers of lions. Not long after my reading this story of lion and gazelle, I was in the gigantic Winners Chapel one Sunday and here was the anointed man of God, Bishop David Oyedepo telling his mammoth flock the need to think and start living like lion in the race for life rather than acting like cows. It is not a surprise that the narration and motivation of the story of lion as told by the Bishop can be said to be the true motivation behind this book in your hand today. However it must be noted that the writer has gone a step forward to talk about the much speculated worth of the man of God, what Forbes said he is worth and of course the book is further spiced with a rare never before seen type of quotes or inspirational sayings from the man, called to liberate his people from abject lack or one manner of illness or the other. I am confident that no matter your race, religion or age, this book can in one way or the other be of great motivation to you in your drive to either live like a lion or a gazelle-whether you call or see yourself as either of the animal, you simply have to RUN faster than others to survive

Bishop David Oyedepo is understood and misunderstood by different people for different reasons. This book provides a better independent real-life account of the mystery behind the mastery of this global Christian gospel phenomenon and his pace-setting undeniable world-class superlative successes in the midst of deep multidimensional national poverty within his home country.

God wants His children to be significantly successful in this life—but sadly, success has remained a mirage or worse still, a daydream. Success is the covenant right of every believer, but it never becomes a reality until the promise is processed. Everything is at the state of rest or inertia until the relevant force is applied according to Newton's first law of motion. This law applies also to prophetic statements. Success is guaranteed for you as a believer based on the prophecy of Scriptures, but the prophecy must be processed—otherwise it'll remain a mere proposition. We have a responsibility to make our ways successful. It's a partnership with God as we engage the forces of success as prescribed in the precepts, concepts, principles, instructions, and lines of Scriptures. In your journey to significant success, you must be conscious of the truth that God has completed His own part of the work. It is entirely your responsibility to determine the height of your success in life. And you can only do this by the knowledge and application of the forces or laws of success as enshrined in the Scriptures. In this book, The 15 Vital Forces of Success, these laws of success have been uniquely captured and packaged into fifteen easy to comprehend modules and designed as the Ds of Success—Desire, Dream, Decision, Details, Demand, Dare, Direction, Diligence, Determination, Dedication, Dependence, Discipline, Development, Dealings, and Delivery. In the book, you'll discover the mysteries or forces behind success and the missing link to your success—also how to effectively engage with them for maximum delivery.

For the past sixty years, the Pentecostal and Charismatic movement has played a major role in Zambia. In this book, Naar Mfundisi-Holloway explains the history of this development and its impact on civic engagement. She opens a discussion on church-state relations and explains how the church presented a channel of hope in the wake of the HIV/AIDS pandemic, despite having a history that eschewed civic engagement. In fact, the pandemic propelled the church to work alongside the state in the fight against the disease. Using interviews and historical analysis, this book provides valuable insight into how Pentecostal and Charismatic churches have effectively engaged matters of civic concern in Zambia dating from colonial times.

"Africa's Diabolical Entrapment" exposes Sub-Saharan Africa as a region that is wantonly bruised in its trap between two major religions in the continent namely Christianity and Traditional Animism. It compares religious beliefs in Africa with historical religious developments in other continents of the world to identify where Black Africa is getting it wrong. While advancing the central message that the belief in Witchcraft, Demigods, Spirits of the dead, the Ancestors and Jesus Christ is not peculiar to Africa it also emphasizes that the pervasiveness of these beliefs in today's Africa poses a serious challenge to the intellectual growth of the society in general. Its conclusive projections and recommendations are definitely a subject of interest to stakeholders in the process of starting a long overdue debate in a continent that is waiting to find its place among progressive nations.
