This is a 32-page picture book in English/Chinese bilingual parallel text; the first of 10 series volumes. The story is about Sophia and Alex and their first day at preschool.

This book illustrates the story of flight for Dong Dong the little albatross and the precious friendship between Ding Ding the little red gull and Dong Dong. The pleasant pictures and fascinating plots remind children to recall their first experience, and heal and resonate their hearts emotionally. The storyline naturally incorporates the ecological characteristics of the albatross and cleverly combines children's literature and natural science.
