Twelfth in a series of annual reports comparing business regulation in 189 economies, Doing Business 2015 measures regulations affecting 10 areas of everyday business activity: Starting a business Dealing with construction permits Getting electricity Registering property Getting credit Protecting minority investors Paying taxes Trading across borders Enforcing contracts Resolving insolvency Labor market regulations This year's report will present data for a second city for the 11 economies with more than 100 million inhabitants. These are Bangladesh, Brazil, China, India, Indonesia, Japan, Mexico, Nigeria, Pakistan, the Russian Federation, and the United States. Three of the 10 topics covered have been expanded, with further plans to expand on five additional indicators in next year's report. Additionally, the Doing Business rankings are now based on the distance to the frontier measure where each economy is evaluated based on how close their business regulations are to the best global practices. This provides a more precise view of each economy's performance and its improvement over time. The report updates all indicators as of June 1, 2014, ranks economies on their overall 'ease of doing business,' and analyzes reforms to business regulation identifying which economies are strengthening their business environment the most. Doing Business illustrates how reforms in business regulations are being used to analyze economic outcomes for domestic entrepreneurs and for the wider economy. It is a flagship product produced in partnership by the World Bank and IFC that garners worldwide attention on regulatory barriers to entrepreneurship. More than 60 economies have used the Doing Business indicators to shape reform agendas and monitor improvements on the ground. In addition, the Doing Business data has generated over 2,000 articles in peer-reviewed academic journals since its inception.

This book is based on the first hand experiences of the first generation businessman Dr. Suresh Haware. He has faced several obstacles, overcome them and when he felt that now is the time to share it with the youngsters, he penned down this book. There are several beliefs and misconceptions and a kind of curiosity about business in our society. The author has elucidated these in a very amusing way. Dr. Suresh Haware has breached the general understanding among people that business can only be done if backed by money power. Capital can be raised from others, rather, it should be raised from others only. The main Capital that one should compulsorily have to do business is that of strong will power, self-confidence and business attitude! In order to imbibe this basic mantra, he discusses the required elements, in detail, in this book to raise hopes to do business. The stories he has shared are really inspiring. Wiser are they who learn from others' experience too. This book will make you wiser. Hence these words of experience will certainly be very useful for the youth wanting to set up a new business and also to those wanting to progress in
