Politics is about everyone. Even if you are not a politician, you cannot even vote or participate in elections. From what time do you have to arrive at school every day? What is a crime? What can we do to avoid war? Which countries should we cooperate with... These are all politics! We need to think about and discuss politics frequently in order to know more about the world, for example: How was the United States born? How did ancient Rome and China manage society? Why are elections and voting important? When did capitalism and communism appear?

This book covers the 'Medicine in Britain, c1250-present' thematic study and the associated historic environment: 'The British sector of the Western Front, 1914-18: injuries, treatment and the trenches'.
