This book is a complete guide for massage therapists interested in adding aromatherapy to their practice. It addresses practical concerns such as pricing sessions to account for the cost of oils, proper dilutions, sending products home with clients, and effective formulations for specific ailments. Case studies present specific ailments in clinical scenarios, with proper aromatherapy and massage treatments. Recipe Boxes provide directions for blending essential oils. Activity boxes develop readers' decision-making skills. Essential oil monographs discuss the history, traditional uses, safety considerations, and most effective use in massage therapy of 50 individual essential oils. Review questions appear in every chapter.

Essential Oils (FREE Bonus Included) 50 Summer Diffuser Recipes And Blends Below is a list of essential oils selected with summer use in head. This is a highly subjective list. For instance, I grow patchouli in the summertime, and have a tendency to appreciate the bouquet of patchouli throughout the year. I also love to comprise Ginger Essential Oil in summertime mixtures, but it's a warming essential oil. You might want to skim through the list of 110 oils included in Aroma Web's Essential Oil Profiles area to see if there are added essential oils that you personally like for summer. Hot essential oils are effective and quite warming. They should not be heavily diffused into a room as they can irritate the mucous membranes. It is far better blend stronger spice oils into more gentle oils like Sweet Orange Essential Oil. We've divided our fragrances into families, breaking down your preferences to make your decision easier. Whether you're looking for a new scent for your home or a gift, the Fragrance Finder is ready to match you with the perfect scent, teaching you about the types of fragrance you love and breaking down the process of discovering new scents for your home!

menopause with recommendations about how to use essential oils to manage the changes happening to their skin, as well as others for those twenty and thirty something beauties. She explains why a one size fits all solution simply will not do. The recipes expand on the usual recommendations of rose and frankincense and the book inducts the reader into the art of crafting moisturisers and skincare from scratch. She explains where to buy the products and how to personalise them to make them entirely unique. For those who don't want to spend a penny, she details where to find the right goodness to slap onto your skin...just languishing in the fruit bowl! Built around a few specific, essential oils and peripheral ingredients, The Secret Healer challenges her readers to make moisturizers, night creams, masques and toners that can rival any in the world. Drawing on Cleopatra's, Nefertiti's and the Empress Josephine's most favourite fragrances and ingredients, for the readers of this book...life just got a whole lot more luxurious....for very little money at all.

Essential Oils 50 Summer Diffuser Recipes and Blends Below is a list of essential oils selected with summer use in head. This is a highly subjective list. For instance, I grow patchouli in the summertime, and have a tendency to appreciate the bouquet of patchouli throughout the year. I also love to comprise Ginger Essential Oil in summertime mixtures, but it's a warming essential oil. You might want to skim through the list of 110 oils included in Aroma Web's Essential Oil Profiles area to see if there are added essential oils that you personally like for summer. Hot essential oils are effective and quite warming. They should not be heavily diffused into a room as they can irritate the mucous membranes. It is far better blend stronger spice oils into more gentle oils like Sweet Orange Essential Oil. We've divided our fragrances into families, breaking down your preferences to make your decision easier. Whether you're looking for a new scent for your home or a gift, the Fragrance Finder is ready to match you with the perfect scent, teaching you about the types of fragrance you love and breaking down the process of discovering new scents for your home!

Essential oils are concentrated plant extracts that have been used for several purposes, including medicine, therapy and beauty. These oils completely ignite the senses, helping you begin your journey of mental and physical balance and instant relief from physical or mental stress. Sometimes a single potent oil could be the answer to all your ailments and problems while in other cases, you may enjoy the soothing effect of several fragrances blended together. After all, these essential oils come in a whole range of rejuvenating scents, be it sweet like lavender or stimulating like eucalyptus.

It's a fact. You can help eliminate germs and fight viruses with homemade anti-viral room sprays. Did you know, some airborne virus particles can float for a few hours before they fall and cling to a new surface? Once they come into contact with the new surface, the length of time they live there varies from surface to surface. For instance, some can live on cloth for two days, stainless steel for two to three days, and glass for four days. Not only do essential oils fragrance your home, but also, they are useful in helping to fight nasty viruses and eliminate germs. This dual-purpose means that homemade anti-viral room sprays and air fresheners go a long way towards protecting your home and the health of those you love. You may already know that eucalyptus, tea tree, and thyme essential oils have anti-viral properties. But are you also aware than cinnamon, clove, orange,
