Foreign language teaching in the elementary schools can now be seen as a genuine revolution in American education. This development, commonly referred to as "FLES," has made dramatic advances in recent years. The selections brought together in this volume are intended to provide a comprehensive overview of foreign language programs in grades kindergarten through eight.

This is a new approach to teach Chinese as a foreign language and is designed for primary school students who start to learn Chinese as total beginners. The focus is to build strong foundation of mastering pin yin and tones through listening to lively rhymes, pictures, and story telling. The topics include such common routines as greetings, classroom language, numbers and dates, colors and clothing, house and rooms, and animals. The set comprises 4 books, each book consists of one textbook with a CD and one workbook. This workbook consist of reproducible exercises.

Beginning with 1953, entries for Motion pictures and filmstrips, Music and phonorecords form separate parts of the Library of Congress catalogue. Entries for Maps and atlases were issued separately 1953-1955.

Here's quick access to more than 490,000 titles published from 1970 to 1984 arranged in Dewey sequence with sections for Adult and Juvenile Fiction. Author and Title indexes are included, and a Subject Guide correlates primary subjects with Dewey and LC classification numbers. These cumulative records are available in three separate sets.

Includes entries for maps and atlases.
