This is the 15th annual edition of the Bibliography of Nautical Books, a reference guide to over 14,000 nautical publications. It deals specifically with the year 2000.

A murder involves Sam Spade in a dangerous search for a valuable statue

First multi-year cumulation covers six years: 1965-70.

THE MALTESE FALCON (1930) set the standard by which the private eye genre is judged. Sam Spade is hired by the fragrant Miss Wonderley to track down her sister, who has eloped with a louse called Floyd Thursby. But Miss Wonderley is in fact the beautiful and treacherous Brigid O'Shaughnessy, and when Spade's partner Miles Archer is shot while on Thursby's trail, Spade finds himself both hunter and hunted: can he track down the jewel-encrusted bird, a treasure worth killing for, before the Fat Man finds him?

The Third Edition of the highly acclaimed Encyclopedia of Special Education has been thoroughly updated to include the latest information about new legislation and guidelines. In addition, this comprehensive resource features school psychology, neuropsychology, reviews of new tests and curricula that have been developed since publication of the second edition in 1999, and new biographies of important figures in special education. Unique in focus, the Encyclopedia of Special Education, Third Edition addresses issues of importance ranging from theory to practice and is a critical reference for researchers as well as those working in the special education field.

Includes entries for maps and atlases.

Although the distinction between the politics of the left and the right is commonly assumed in the media and in treatments of political science and history, the terms are used so loosely that the student and the general reader are often confused: What exactly are the terms left and right supposed to imply? This two-volume Encyclopedia of Politics: The Left and the Right contains over 450 articles on individuals, movements, political parties, and ideological principles, with those usually thought of as left in the left-hand volume (Volume 1), and those considered on the right in the right-hand volume (Volume 2).

A review and record of current literature.

Paperback Quarterly, journal of mass-market paperback history, Volume 4 Number 3, Fall 1981, contains:

"Norman Daniels -- the Writer as Assembly Line," by Michael S. Barson, "An Interview with Norman Daniels," by Michael S. Barson, "Dashiell Hammett in the Dell Mapbacks," by William Lyles, "SF Writers in Other Fields," by Bill Crider, "Eugene Manlove Rhodes," by M. C. Hill, "Covers that Never Were," "The Pocket Books/DeGraff Formula," by Charley Culpepper and "Paperback Postcards," by Thomas Bonn.

The deluxe limited edition of Lost Stories by Dashiell Hammett was published months before the trade edition, making this limited edition the first book publication for several Hammett stories, and the first hardcover edition for all but 5 of the 21 stories. The deluxe collector's edition is limited to 195 hand-numbered copies, each signed by both Joe Gores and Vince Emery, and bound in cloth with a spine of Saderra leather. The book's spine and front cover are stamped with genuine gold, and page edges are gilt. It is housed in a matching slipcase with debossed art panels on the front and back sides.

It gives me enormous pleasure to introduce the "Concise of Chemical Elements." I have tried my best by putting forth my lifetime's experiences as a teacher in this book. I am sure the book will be extremely well received by a large community of students, teachers, the common man, and even scientists. Reader's satisfaction, Author's success. Concise of Chemical elements has been written concisely and divided into 14 chapters according to the type of elements. How these elements were discovered is the subject of the first part of our book. How the inquisitive mind of the researchers discovered new chemical elements, one after other. Each element has its own biography, interesting in its own way. Each and every line of the book is a pact with important, essential information that it provides interesting reading material,
