It is a suspense masterpiece by Japanese writer Keigo Higashino. It is a long novel that talks about dreams, affection, and protection. It includes both a subtle analysis of human nature and a sincere discussion of affection. It contains the expectation of parents towards children as well as silent guardianship of children towards parents.

From New York Times bestselling author Cassia Leo comes an emotional romance about all-consuming love and family secrets. Jack and I had everything. Then in one brutal instant, the universe tilted on its side, discarding us into black nothingness. Now Jack is obsessed with revenge, and I'm desperate to leave the night of our anniversary behind me. When we're not fighting, the only way we communicate is in the bedroom. With nothing left to lose, I write a goodbye letter and head for my mother's empty house, three hours away from Jack, where I quickly meet a neighbor who helps me find a job. My new neighbor—handsome ex-soldier Isaac Evans—is complicated. Nevertheless, we form a fast friendship, bonding over a mutual desire to create something beautiful from the wreckage of our lives. But despite the distance between us, Jack and I are still trying to make things work—fighting and playing dirtier than ever. And he doesn't appreciate my new friendship with Isaac. Not one damn bit.
