Destined to incite deeper biblical study into timed prophecy, this book unfolds the reason why the sixth millennium of heaven's longest RclockS is about to end. From secular, natural and biblical history, Dr. Fowler persuasively argues that a momentous transition in time is about to occur. (Biblical Studies)

I, David, was in the world without knowing about the salvation that God gives in the forgiveness of sins. In Brawley C.A. with the prayers of a Christian group, I received the Lord Jesus as my only savior asking for God's forgiveness I became a Christian since January of 2005. Just a couple days after I accepted our Lord Jesus as my only savior, I was walking at the north-west side of Brawley which is Westmorland C.A. I was alone facing the sky and talking to the Lord Jesus, at that night I have a spiritual experience, the Holy Spirit came on me, and as I overjoyed of his grace facing the sky I feel his voice (with no sound) together with the bits of my heart saying; "comeback" I heard it four times, and as I tried to speak not understanding what really was meaning, the holy spirit leaded me to the ground that I couldn't move and the grace of the Lord was stronger over me, I was feeling his voice (with no sound) together with the bits of my heart saying the same words another four times; "come back" and as I could I responded Him that I will, at that very moment all of it disappear like if it was slowly dissolving from me. I admit that I did not understand what the Lord Jesus Christ was meaning to tell me, but I must say that from that very moment my life drastically changed, I was not a biblical reader, reading or writing was not my ability, but I became one as I learned to be a true Christian, but still did not understood the true meaning of God's words, and years came to pass, the world was not the same to me, it became worst, but I grew in the faith stronger and stronger. In November of 2008 I moved from Richmond V.A. to Raleigh N.C. after many days I met a Christian family, I was in love with them but I knew that I couldn't stay longer for I'd have more enemies than friends, something difficult to explain but easy to understand, at that time I was down in faith and losing hope before I met them, now they are an important part in my life even though I couldn't tell them how much I loved them I know they will know this someday, while I was with them in their church they convinced me to be baptized in order to completely be in God's word and in his love! In the name of the Lord it was done, just before I leave Raleigh N.C. and I leave with no chance to say goodbye but I am thankful to them. As years came to pass I found my purpose, as a believer I'd have pass so many test in the word of God, I believed in a glorious day, and I have forgotten my enemies and asking for the forgiveness of my God, everywhere I go I carry on this purpose, I gently fight against the unbelievers with the sword of God, and I defeated them with the only purpose to lead them to see the truth, but the message is not about my life at all, just let you know that I am here for you. I've lost most of me and so many doors were closed to me by carry on my testimony that God gave me to give to his holy church, I've being test by the Lord's will, but because everything is ready, this is my testimony that I must finish in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth; "three days and one night" amen! Dedicated to my holy family in Jesus Christ, from Abraham to everyone in this last days, be blessed and the grace of the Lord be with you all, this is my only wish, and as peter say, "Silver or gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you".

Very simple text describes how God created the stars, sun, animals, man, and trees.

For too long, too many people have told us too many ways in which we should worship God. God, Himself, told us how to worship Him, and that's all we need to know. This book will not give you any answers but should raise many questions, for which you need to ask God to get the answers. My goal is that when you have finished this book, you will feel very uncomfortable with what you have been told to believe. I believe we are living in prophetic times, and this book is a wake-up call.

This book is about how the living soul can attain eternal peace and hence eternal life as a living soul would yield it when abiding in the Lord Jesus Christ. Tapping the Lords Prayer as the authorized spiritual vehicle to communicate with God, this book attests that the name of the Lord Jesus Christ is the foundation, the seal of salvation, and the bearing point to overcome the world. By showing the intrinsic relationship of the invisible with the manifested world, the heavenly and the earthly, this book lucidly defines why the soul should glorify God as an end to lifes purpose while seeking righteousness and fulfilling the commandments. By presenting ground breaking revelations about the spiritual realm and hence the living God through the spiritual compass, this book would help the reader to discern wisdom about how to worship the Lord in truth and spirit to see the glimpse of eternal life and enjoy eternal peace, not as the world offers it but as the Lord Jesus confers it on the living soul.

Professor Carmichael here proposes a convincing solution to a perplexing problem in biblical studies--the order and arrangement of the Deuteronomic laws. He shows that Deuteronomy is not a haphazard collection of fragments, but rather a carefully constructed, coherent literary work with a definite purpose. Through his analysis, many of the peculiar features of the code are made intelligible, for example, the relationship between the laws and earlier stories, sagas, and historical narratives. Opening up a new approach to the interpretation of the laws, this book makes an important contribution to the understanding of biblical material.

What you are about to read, in short, is a book that will shed the light of truth on things kept in the dark by the silly beliefs, stubbornness of man and the deceptions of Satan. You will be brought into the light and you will see things as to the way they TRULY are. This book will expose the TRUTH that has been covered up for centuries by the many inconsistent ramblings of organized religion. The author of this book was taught by NO MAN! The truth is simple when led by the Holy Spirit. You will see conformation of Almighty God leading the author. Anyone can write a book and say anything they wish, and anyone can claim that Almighty God led them. But this book has something they don't have! In this book you will read of "DIVINE EXTRAORDINARY SYNCHRONIZATION" from Almighty God leading the author. The TRUTH has now been exposed. Come on in and receive it!

The New Believer's Bible commentary is an easy to read study guide designed for people who did not grow up in the church and the people who minister to them. It provides the background information needed to fully understand scripture, and emphasizes what this means in a person's life. In Genesis -Deuteronomy the sacrifices, feasts and laws are explained in a way that makes them easy to understand. Older Christians may enjoy this too, as it is a comfortable reminder of why you believe and a chance to revisit old friends. The book shows people in a very human light that one can relate to and identify with, helping us to understand how we should and should not behave, and what faith truly is.

This is a prose English and very literal translation of the first five books of the Old Testament (The Torah). Aramaic was the language of Jesus and of 1st century Israel. The Peshitta Bible is the world's first entire Christian Bible. The Peshitta Old Testament is itself a translation of the Hebrew Bible completed in the 1st century AD, according to the available evidence. No Peshitta scholar places the Peshitta OT later than the 2nd century AD. As such, it gives an early look at the state of the Hebrew Bible at that time, since Aramaic and Hebrew are sister Semitic languages and about as close to each other as any two languages can be, sharing the same alphabet, writing, grammar, much vocabulary and even similar pronunciation of many words. Some of the original Old Testament is Aramaic, such as Daniel chapters 2 through 7 inclusive, and Ezra 4 through much of 7. It even appears in a verse of Genesis 31 and one verse in Jeremiah 10:11. 228 pages, hardback.

Werner Adrian takes you on a most unique journey through the Bible, one in which you will discover numeric figures within the Scriptures that contain hidden names and coded messages that reveal astounding truths about Christ and His connection to every book of the Bible. Prepare to be enlightened, inspired, and comforted as you encounter new evidence that God's Word was prepared not by man but by God Himself Show Less Observations of the sun, moon, planets, and stars played a central role in ancient Maya lifeways, as they do today among contemporary Maya who maintain the traditional ways. This pathfinding book reconstructs ancient Maya astronomy and cosmology through the astronomical information encoded in Precolumbian Maya art and confirmed by the current practices of living Maya peoples. Susan Milbrath opens the book with a discussion of modern Maya beliefs about astronomy, along with essential information on naked-eye observation. She devotes subsequent chapters to Precolumbian astronomical imagery, which she traces back through time, starting from the Colonial and Postclassic eras. She delves into many aspects of the Maya astronomical images, including the major astronomical gods and their associated glyphs, astronomical almanacs in the Maya codices [painted books], and changes in the imagery of the heavens over time. This investigation yields new data and a new synthesis of information about the specific astronomical events and cycles recorded in Maya art and architecture. Indeed, it constitutes the first major study of the relationship between art and astronomy in ancient Maya culture.

Daniel W. Cobb, a farmer and small slaveholder from Virginia's rural tidewater, was unhappily married, resentful of his prosperous in-laws, and terribly lonely. His closest friend was the diary he kept for more than thirty momentous years in American history, from 1842 until his death at age sixty-one in 1872. The devout, plainspoken Cobb wrote in a conversational style, candidly recording his innermost thoughts. His diary's intimate account of a troubled marriage provides a painfully frank chronicle of incompatibility. The diary also illuminates the momentous impact of the Civil War and emancipation. Offering many insights into the oral culture from which he sprang, Cobb's Ordeal reveals the great differences that separate his world from our own.

In September 2002 she married the man of her dreams. In June 2005 they purchased their home in paradise. It was the perfect love nest, the kind of home most people can only dream about. Their private get-a-way was nestled in 5.75 acres of plush exotic land, with a towering forest of landscape and natural habitat, overlooking several creeks and streams with breath taking sunset views from every angle. It was secretly hidden from the world, a place where deer's and rabbits seek refuge; where the falcons soared and roamed freely without fear of discovery. It was the summer of their lives, with a newly built wrap-around deck that lit up the night. They were the envy of all their friends and neighbors. Until one day the perfect dream they once shared came crashing down around them! Their once perfect marriage would be put to the test. Voluntary humility is an honor and privilege best served with a willing, sincere and open heart. To be humbled by God, is an indescribable devastation of heartache and pain for which they would soon discover. September 2009 the flood they once mocked and avoided two years prior, returns with a wicked vengeance, only this time it would take most of the city and their home in paradise with it! Being homeless with only the clothes on their backs, they did not sin nor did they charge God with wrong. They were hard-pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed. In this faith based book, Bernita Weston shares with the world how they were able to turn their tragedy into triumph. Find out, How to Count it ALL Joy, When Faced with Insurmountable Circumstances!

The books of Moses are the first five books of the Jewish and Christian. They are Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. In the Hebrew Bible they are collectively known as the "Torah." The Torah books have been collectively defined as books of "instruction or teaching," which is the literal interpretation of "Torah." However the Torah has been collectively referred to as "The Law" or "The Law of Moses." In Greek, those first five books are known as the Pentateuch. In the Septuagint Greek version of the Old Testament Bible (LXX) they are called "Law" after the Greek word nomos. Disregarding the arguments that Moses was not the author of these books (the general consensus is that he is the author) the Books present a record of the greatest manifestation of God on the earth before Christ. The acts, ways and personality of God are portrayed no better than in these books. They highlights His personality are: His love, kindness, mercy, flexibility, jealous anger and the fact that He will stop at nothing until He has a people for His own possession. The books in Moses portray a meek and humble man called to a task greater than himself. God called him the most humble man on the face of the earth. Moses, according to the record, spoke face to face with God. This is the most unique example of God moving through a frail human vessel (excluding Christ). In return for his courage and humility God performed great and wonderful acts through him. God did not move sovereignly but through this man. This is always, to the present day, the way God moves. "Surely the Lord GOD does nothing Unless He reveals His secret counsel To His servants the prophets" (Amos 3:7). Moses knew the Lord. He knew both His acts and His ways, which set him apart from the peoples he served. "He made known His ways to Moses, His acts [not His ways] to the sons of Israel" (Psalm 103:7). Consider the acts done by God through Moses. He delivered a nation of hundreds of thousands of people from the most powerful nation on the earth at the time (Egypt). At the same time God judged the gods of Egypt so that Egypt as a nation never returned to its former glory. He established arguably the greatest form of government known at the time. It was the first, and only, workable theocracy, governed by one God. Moses stood between God and the people. Many times God, in His jealous anger, meant to destroy the entire nation. However, time after time, Moses changed His mind. In the book of Genesis the lineage of the nation of Israel (and eventually Christ), is followed from Abraham, to Isaac and finally J

Worship services in Christian houses today are centered on their beliefs concerning the timing of Christ's crucifixion and resurrection. Are these church calendars mathematically sound? Join new author Carol Marie as she conducts a mathematical analysis of the New Testament writings to determine when and how Christ fulfilled the scriptures, an understanding of which can only be attained by solving the mathematical word problems recorded in the Bible. The Law Fulfilled develops the Hebrew calendar for the year in which Christ died and was raised from the dead and highlights the significance of celebrating God's appointed feasts in the New Testament church. Others have published work pertaining to the dates of the crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ but their math contradicts the scripture leaving several verses unexplained e.g. Matt. 12:40; Mark 15:1; Luke 22:78, 1314; and John 18:28. The analysis executed in The Law Fulfilled is not only thorough in defining and computing the mathematical word problems that identify these important dates in the life of Christ, but unlike other works, its accuracy is validated by the prophetic calendar itself which is expounded in the Holy Bible.
