Pernkopf's atlas has been called a "troubled masterpiece." It has been praised for its artistry and accurate detail but has attracted controversy due to Pernkopf's Nazi connections and the findings of the 1998 commission at the University of Vienna that some of the illustrations were based on executed victims of political terror. It remains unproven however that any illustrations were based on Jewish victims or prisoners of war.

É comum ocorrência de escorregamento em pisos cerâmicos caracterizados como antiderrapantes e/ou antideslizantes. Como possíveis agentes causadores destes acidentes, estão: irregularidades no pavimento, tipos de sujeiras e substâncias, formas de locomoção, formato dos pés, tipo de transeuntes, ou seja, aqueles que possuem alguma dificuldade de equilíbrio. Entretanto, outro fator importante é o baixo coeficiente de atrito entre o piso e suas diferentes superfícies de contato. Estas, quando sujeitas a uma face oleosa ou misturas viscosas, geram condições de maior ou menor atrito. Assim, tanto o consumidor quanto o comerciante nunca têm a certeza sobre o significado exato da inscrição AD nas embalagens

Brazil's Northeast has traditionally been considered one of the country's poorest and most underdeveloped areas. In this impassioned work, the Brazilian historian Durval Muniz de Albuquerque Jr. investigates why Northeasterners are marginalized and stereotyped not only by inhabitants of other parts of Brazil but also by nordestinos themselves. His broader question though, is how "the Northeast" came into existence. Tracing the history of its invention, he finds that the idea of the Northeast was formed in the early twentieth century, when elites around Brazil became preoccupied with building a nation. Diverse phenomena—from drought policies to messianic movements, banditry to new regional political blocs—helped to consolidate this novel concept, the Northeast. Politicians, intellectuals, writers, and artists, often nordestinos, played key roles in making the region cohere as a space of common references and concerns. Ultimately, Albuquerque urges historians to question received concepts, such as regions and regionalism, to reveal their artifice and abandon static categories in favor of new, more granular understandings.

"A mystical mediation on creation and death in which a man (a thinly disguised Clarice Lispector) infuses the "breath of life" into his creation [and] forms a dialogue between the god-like author and the speaking, breathing, dying creature herself: Angela Pralini"--P. [4] of cover.
