Worst. Birthday. Ever. A boring field trip to the local historical museum quickly becomes deadly when one of Beams' classmates is kidnapped. The perpetrator: The supervillain Birthday Candles, an infamous criminal wanted throughout the whole country for his cannibalistic crimes. Now Beams and Rubberman must track down Birthday Candles before he can eat Beams' classmate. Yet that is easier said than done when Candles pulls a disappearing act, forcing Beams and his boss to race against time before it's too late. Set between the end of Minimum Wage Sidekick and the beginning of Dimension Heroes.

Based on newspaper columns written by the author between 1980 and 1985, this compilation of personal reflections brings to the reader a fresh and open perspective on those days and times. Incredibly timely, this book offers inspiration, encouragement, and the recognition of the beauty and wonder of ordinary, everyday life. From celebrating high school graduations to ruing the deterioration of good manners, from cherishing friendships to looking honestly at both the joys and difficulties of parenting, Linda's eye and voice are uniquely hers as a woman of faith, inviting the reader in with both common sense about and delight in everyday living.
