This newly revised and updated companion study guide to the 2019 edition of the New York Times bestseller Getting the Love You Want. In 1988, Harville Hendrix, in partnership with his wife, Helen LaKelly Hunt, published a terrifically successful relationship guide called Getting the Love You Want. The book introduced thousands to their Imago Relationship Therapy, a unique healing process for couples, prospective couples, and parents, and developed into an overnight sensation. For their part, Doctors Hendrix and Hunt managed to aid scores of couples in their plight for more loving, supportive, and deeply satisfying relationships. Now, more than a decade later, this companion book picks up where its predecessor left off, delving further into relationship therapy to help transform relationships into lasting sources of love and companionship. The Getting the Love You Want Workbook is designed

A good man is hard to find. . . . Finding a partner often feels like an awful lot of work for very little reward. The relationship expert Matthew Hussey used to feel the same way. So he did some field research, taught himself to meet the women he was looking for, and built a business coaching other men to improve their love lives. And now he's sharing his insights with you. It turns out that men and women want the same thing: a lasting, meaningful relationship. Matthew says that finding "the guy" isn't just about finding "a guy." It's about creating a life with someone who engages you at every level. In Get the Guy, Matthew shows you how to be proactive in your love life so that you can meet, talk to, and win over the guy who's right for you—without playing games. After reading this book, you will not only get the guy, but you'll actually get him. You will understand how men think and what they're looking for. Attracting the right guy is about being confident in who you are and the value you bring to the table—so you can find a guy who's as great of a catch as you are!

Saving relationships: Tips for solving relationship problems - The Relationship Guide Is your relationship going completely different from the way you want it to be? Have you been unhappy for a long time and finally want to change your situation? Then this guide is exactly what you need! A relationship crisis is not the end of a relationship. You can still save your relationship with this book if you have the will. Your own attitude is as important as the techniques I will give you in this book. If you don't feel the urge to change something inside, you shouldn't force it. In this book we will first look at the typical causes of a relationship crisis. This will be the basis for moving forward and saving our own relationship in real life. If we do not know the causes of our problem, we cannot treat it. In retrospect we will go deeper into the matter and look at the different techniques with which you can quickly and easily save your relationship. Take as much time as you need to read it. In many cases it can be helpful

This book is about all of the kinds of relationships people can have. It is a very insightful book about how relationships emerge. But it is also about how indispensable they are to our ongoing sense of being who we are in the worlds we inhabit. We have relationships with various people. But we also have relationships with our possessions, with our pets, and with our pens and car keys. We have relationships with the foods we eat, the places we go, and the diversions we take. We have relationships with the news we attend to, the gossip we consume, and the places we are familiar with. We have relationships with our clothes, our lotions and potions, our grooming equipment, our computers and our snow shovels. Taken together, all of the relationships we have had, have today, and will have in the future attach us to our worlds in an admixture of pushes and pulls on our attention and our behavior. Metaphorically, it might visually look much like an intricate circular spider web, with us individually stuck at the core. We use the singular "relationship" here because we want to explore what it is that all relationships have in common: relationship. Relationships are sticky. They are far easier to fall into than to escape from. They are often demanding, requiring our attention when we wanted to devote our attention elsewhere. The drama of misplaced keys or a balky computer can take over our lives. We have hopes for certain relationships. We can be disappointed in how they turn out. But most of the myriad relationships that affect our lives just sort of happen. If they don't serve our purposes as we think we deserve, we drop them. A piece of clothing that just doesn't look right in the light can be dropped. That's something you can't do with your own baby. You have a relationship with your body. If you're rich, you can get a remodeling job. If you're not, you may be stuck with the body you've got. Some relationships bring us down. Other relationships lift us up. In this book, you will learn how to create the kinds of relationships you need to get to where you want to go. The relationship you have with yourself is key. This book reveals to you how, if you get that right, most of the other relationships you live in, and by, will fall into place.

learned from your past relationships Relationship sustainability and functionality Your expectations and deal breakers Your motivations How to choose partners wisely And most importantly - HOW to stop your relationship pain. Are You Ready for a New Relationship? These 37 Questions Will Help You Decide! is a guide that will help open your mind and steer you toward the successful relationship that your soul and mind have been waiting for. When asked if they are ready for a relationship, many people will proclaim from the mountaintops, "Yes! I am ready!" But if you ask them what sacrifices they are willing to make for a successful, fulfilling, nurturing relationship, the story changes rapidly. Most people don't want to make changes or adjustments. They want a new partner to accept or adjust to the way they are, complete with all of their issues, childhood trauma, previous relationship residue, and baggage of every size, shape and color. However, starting a new relationship without addressing the past and preparing yourself for a new kind of relationship will most likely produce a relationship with the same outcome as your previous relationships. To have a new kind of relationship, you may have to be a new kind of you. If you stay the same, expect the same. This book will gently guide you in a new direction to open your thinking and address your issues. It will help you clearly identify your wants and needs and address your past in a positive and meaningful way. Tools will be provided to help you easily recognize your relationship patterns, analyze your past relationships, understand what contributions you make to relationship dysfunction, learn how to make a good relationship choice, and realize how to know what you want and get it. With this knowledge, you will become a better you and make informed choices so that you don't keep dating the same guy/girl with a different name. In order to attract a more compatible partner, you must be able to recognize Mr./Ms. Wrong before you try to make him/her Mr./Ms. Right. Finding a mate and committing to a relationship is one of the most important decisions anyone can ever make. There are few things that will affect the trajectory of your life more than the person you choose to partner with or marry. To get it all, you have to give it all. Great relationships don't just happen as a fluke; they take work, work and more hard work. Work that will provide a great reward when you find "your happy" with the right person. Before you invest your time, energy and emotions, you have to make sure the relationship you are giving your all to is the right one. Additionally, you have to ask yourself where you want to go in life and whether the mate you chose will serve as a hindrance or a help. If you have the wrong mate, he/she can prohibit you from achieving some of your goals. Are you ready for a relationship? This is a
