"Unjustified enrichment" is one of the three main non-contractual obligations dealt with in the DCFR. In recent years unjustified enrichment has been one of the most intellectually animated areas of private law. In an area of law whose territory is still partially uncharted and whose boundaries are contested, this volume of Principles of European Law will be invaluable for academic analysis of the law and its development by the courts. During the drafting process, comparative material from over 25 different EU jurisdictions has been taken into account. The work therefore is not only a presentation of a future model for European rules to come but provides also a fairly detailed indication of the present legal situation in the Member States.

Il 3 marzo 1547 fu definito a Trento che il ministro dei sacramenti nell'esercizio del suo ufficio deve avere almeno l'intenzione di fare quello che fa la Chiesa. La formula usata dal Concilio: volere fare quello che fa la Chiesa non ebbe sempre e da tutti la medesima interpretazione. I teologi dell'epoca, dato il sorgere e lo svilupparsi delle controversie sul valore dei sacramenti amministrati dagli eretici, furono portati a studiare e a chiarire con gli altri elementi richiesti anche quello dell'intenzione del ministro. Le domande fondamentali furono: e necessaria l'intenzione del ministro? Se si, quale deve essere l'oggetto dell'intenzione del ministro? Questo volume si propone di studiare quale sia stato, nel periodo immediatamente precedente il Concilio, nel periodo del Concilio e nel grande rifiorire della scolastica dopo il Concilio, il pensiero dei teologi sull'oggetto dell'intenzione del ministro dei sacramenti.

Unlike the many magazines that revolve around the architectural world, Ardeth concerns neither with outcomes (architecture) nor with the authors (architects). Ardeth concerns instead with their operational work, i.e. projects. The shift from subjects (their good intentions, as taught in Universities and reclaimed in the profession) to objects (the products of design, at work within the social system that contains them) engenders an analytical and falsifiable elaboration of the complex mechanisms that an open practice such as design involves. Through a process of disciplinary redefinition, Ardeth explores the falsifiability of design hypotheses as the object that allows the project to scientifically confront errors and approximations.

SALVE!, Second Edition is a complete introductory Italian program that introduces students to Italian life and culture while furthering their skills to understand and express common words and phrases in Italian. Students are exposed to the vibrant life of modern day Italy and its rich cultural heritage through the Sulla Strada video clips which give your students a taste of everyday life in Italy while providing a wealth of activities in both the text and online. The integration of video, suggestions for music, internet and GoogleEarth searches, and a distinctive focus on Italy's varied regions, make this text essential for anyone interested in learning Italian. Students are invited to talk about their education, family, friends, tastes, leisure activities, their past and their plans for the future, and encourages them to make cross-cultural comparisons and connections from their own life with those of their Italian counterparts. Students will also discover the different Italian regions and their distinctive characteristics. SALVE! is a complete, streamlined program that is highly-effective for courses with a two-semester or reduced hour sequence. The text uses a manageable building block method introducing the structures of the language through an easy-to-understand dialogue and narrative, and by recycling essential vocabulary throughout each chapter.
