

Lift The Flap Questions And Answers About Dinosaurs Lift The Flap Questions And Answer

A cool and exciting way to learn about food. This book answers plenty of questions from inquisitive children about their food and where it comes from.

A quirky lift-the-flap book that answers children's questions about science. A fun book to dip in and out of, it has lots of quirky and interesting facts children will find fascinating.

This delightful, informative flap book explores the everyday topic of teeth cleaning in a charming, fascinating way. Discover how animals look after their teeth, why teeth wobble and fall out and how you can keep your own teeth healthy and white. New in the award-winning, bestselling series. The sturdy flaps make this board book perfect for little fingers. Other titles in the series include What is Poo?, What are Germs?, What is Snow?, What are Stars?, What is Sleep?, Why do we need Potties?

This latest title in the delightful Lift-the-flap Questions and Answers series is packed with questions inquisitive young children love to ask and grown-ups sometimes struggle to answer.

Explore the magic and mystery of the moon, from why it changes shape and what makes it shine to how astronauts managed to land on it and what they found there. 50 years after the first Moon Landing, this delightful book makes a perfect introduction to the topic for a new generation. Illustrations: Full colour throughout

The Lift-the-flap Questions and Answers series from Usborne tackles a huge range of diverse topics from dinosaurs to plastic in an exciting interactive format and with irresistible style. In this book you'll take a tour through the many styles of music, musical instruments, the process of learning an instrument, accompanied by the sort of questions that intrigue children and that adults often find difficult to answer simply, such as 'How do you write a song?', 'How do drummers know what to play?', 'How do I dance to music?' and crucially, 'How long before I'm good?' which, in the context of learning the violin, is a very pertinent question...

Lift the Flap Questions & Answers Usborne Books

Answers difficult questions and gives advice on how to deal with racism. Answering difficult questions such as What is race? and How did racism begin? in a way that's both accessible and meaningful, this book is an extremely important addition to the best-selling Lift-the-flap Questions and Answers series

A beautiful and gentle look at the circle of life, using Christine Pym's gorgeous animals characters to explore the emotions and facts around death, with questions such as Is it ok to talk about dying? What happens when someone dies? Can I shout and cry and hide away? and How can I stop feeling sad? The latest in the wonderful First Questions and Answers series, this title covers an extremely tricky topic in a friendly and approachable way. Uses animal characters in the same way as First Q&A: What are feelings? Fills a very important gap in the market, helping parents and carers to find the words to explain death and dying to young children.

An appealing, lift-the-flap book that answers children's questions about science in an accessible, fun way. Inspired by the sort of questions young children ask, this is a great book to dip in and out of, with lots of quirky and interesting facts.

If you know a child who is obsessed with dinosaurs and constantly talking about these amazing prehistoric creatures, this interactive flap book answers lots of their questions.

What are stars? is the third in the Very First Questions & Answers series, following on from What is poo? and What are germs? It explores how stars aren't just the pointy shapes we know - in fact the tiny twinkly stars in the night sky aren't star-shaped at all and they aren't tiny. They're actually massive burning balls. The book goes on to explain how stars make patterns in the sky, how the Sun is our nearest star, and how shooting stars aren't stars but whizzing lumps of space rock. Charmingly illustrated by Marta Alvarez-Miguens, each page has flaps to lift and find out more.

Children are always asking questions and space is a very fascinating subject. This illustrated book has lots of answers.

Lots of questions for inquisitive young minds. The colourful illustrations, large and simple text and chunky flaps reveal the answers. The little curious one's questions about the facts of life are finally answered in a way that is both sensible and approachable for them. It tells children enough facts to satisfy their curiosity without getting into the specific details which will be learnt at an older age. The focus is on babies throughout the animal kingdom, as well as human babies and as with all the Lift-the-flap First Questions and Answers, questions are inspired by the sort of typical children's questions. Other titles in this series are Lift-the-flap First Questions and Answers How do flowers grow? and Lift-the-flap First Questions and Answers What makes it rain?

Won The Royal Society Young People's Book Prize in 2013. Designed for preschool children, the basic knowledge of traveling in space starts from the first page turning. Pre-departure training for Jedi Rescue, start! Super-attractive fantasy space children's book! There are so many page-turning mechanisms in the whole book, which make people immersed in the surprise of exploring and discovering the secrets of the universe. -The RS Award selection team will come and follow this fascinating flip book.

Children are always asking questions and their bodies are an endless source of fascination to them. This illustrated book has lots of answers.

What's the point of belly buttons? When will I stop growing? These are just some of the 60+ questions that are featured in this extremely useful book. Children won't be able to resist lifting the flaps to find out the answers. Illustrations: Full colour throughout

This thoughtful book explores happiness, sadness, anger, fear and worry in a friendly and approachable way. Adorable animal characters experience different emotions, while imaginative flaps answer important questions such as 'Why don't I feel happy all the time?' and 'How can I cheer up my friend?' Illustrations: Full colour throughout

Lift the over 60 flaps in this book to discover the answers to questions that every child asks: when, how, where, who, why, which, and what!

A really hands-on introduction to a topical and currently important subject. It explains the way viruses spread, where they come from and how they work, answering a children's questions with fun, interactive flaps.

Why is there so much plastic in the world? How does it help us? What's the problem and how can we solve it? These are just some of the 60+ questions answered in this timely and topical book. The facts are presented in a friendly and quirky way, helping kids to understand this global predicament and inspiring them to be part of the solution. Illustrations: Full colour throughout
With flaps to lift on every page, this delightful and funny book answers the questions that all young children ask about poo! From what is poo, to how much poo can an elephant do? This new series from Usborne presents information for the very youngest children in a fun, interactive way, using children's questions as a starting point for some interesting and entertaining discussions. 'What are germs?' and 'What are stars?' will follow.

Why do I have to go to sleep? What happens when you sleep? Where do animals sleep? What are dreams? These curious questions are explored through delightful illustrations, intriguing flaps and simple words. This friendly and approachable book takes a closer look at what is sleep and why we need it. The latest addition to the popular Very First Q&A series, following on from What is Poo?, What are Germs? and What are Stars? Charming illustrations by Marta Alvarez-Miguens and large flaps for inquisitive little fingers make it all the more apt and appealing to young children.

A quirky lift-the-flap book that answers children's questions about time. A fun book to dip in and out of, this book is a great way to help time fly while learning all about it. An interactive board book with over 60 flaps, exploring all kinds of questions that young children ask about the world around them. Lift the flaps to discover the answers to lots of 'what?', 'why?', 'how?', 'when?' and 'who?' questions. Provides friendly, simple answers to challenging questions, with entertaining and informative illustrations. Illustrations: Full colour throughout

A busy, interactive reference book introducing children to the fascinating world of bees. Discover why we need bees, where they live, how honey is made and more. Perfect for curious minds, this friendly lift-the-flap book introduces this amazing topic in a simple and accessible manner. Illustrations: Full colour throughout Answering fascinating and tricky art questions - from What is art? to How do you make a bronze sculpture? - this latest addition to the popular Q&A series is a must-have for inquisitive young artists. Brush up on how to mix colours, find out where dyes originated from and learn about famous art works from around the world. Each flap provides a complete question and answer, perfect for dipping into. Illustrator Marie-Eve Tremblay has exquisitely recreated some of the world's most famous artworks. Encourages young children that they can be artists too, and probably are already!

This fascinating book answers all kinds of questions about the weather. Lift the flaps to discover where, how, why, what, which, who, yes or no. This latest addition to the popular Q&A series answers over 60 fascinating questions about the weather!

Many children are fascinated by animals and this engaging flap book will answer lots of their questions. It features entertaining and informative illustrations and over 50 flaps to lift and look beneath.

What makes it rain? How do rainbows appear? How hot is the sun? Why does lightning flash? Where does wind come from? Young children can find out the answers to these questions and more by lifting the flaps in this friendly, illustrated introduction to the science of weather.

Follow boy and girl twins as they learn what potties are for, struggle to make their potties work, wet their pants along the way then finally triumph. Not only do they learn how to wee and poo on the potty, they also progress to the big loo! Both an entertaining flap book and a practical guide, this book is invaluable for toddlers and parents. Part of the bestselling award-winning series. Other titles include What is poo?, What are germs?, What are stars? and What is sleep? Large sturdy flaps are perfect for little fingers. With simple but informative text and charming illustrations on every page. This delightful book explores all kinds of questions that young children ask. Lift the flaps to discover who, what, when, where, how, which, and why.

"Why do spiders make webs? Where do clouds come from? And how many leaves does a tree have? Inquisitive young children can discover the answers to these questions and many more in this beautifully illustrated information book, containing over 60 flaps to lift. A fascinating introduction to the natural world."

Very First Questions and Answers is a new series to sit below First Questions and Answers, aimed at pre-school children and with more of a picture book approach. What are Germs? is the second title in the series, which follows on from What is Poo which sold over 100,000 copies worldwide since publication in November 2016. A very simple illustrated explanation of germs and hygiene.

What are rainbows made of? How hot is the sun? When do hurricanes happen? Discover the answers to these questions and many more in this fascinating information book, with over 60 flaps to lift.

An interactive board book with over 60 flaps, exploring all kinds of questions that young children ask about the world around them. Lift the flaps to discover the answers to lots of 'what?', 'why?', 'how?', 'when?' and 'who?' questions. Provides friendly, simple answers to challenging questions, with entertaining and informative illustrations.

"Why Do Tigers Have Stripes" takes a playful, informative look at why animals (and a few plants) are the way they are and do what they do, zoned into 5 topics - camouflage, food storage, protection, movement, construction - plus a general spread. Quirky scenes, simple text and friendly flaps answer lots of pressing questions.

A quirky lift-the-flap book that answers children's questions about food. A fun book to dip in and out of, this book is a great way to learn lots about what's on our plates!

A fabulous overview of what happens to our waste, from stinking problems and hi tech sorting systems to the importance of make less rubbish in the first place. Includes top tips on how we can reduce and re-use. Illustrations: Full colour throughout.

This revealing book answers all kinds of questions about plastic. Lift the flaps to discover what, why, when, where, who, which... and how we can all make a difference.

Copyright: 57ee772206c1d308fe1eb2ff2190a747