Two strangers. Trapped in an elevator. Become tangled together in a twisted sting to steal a fortune. d'Artagnan Dugan. My manipulating stepmother stole my family fortune years ago and to get it back I have to be happily married before my thirtieth birthday in three weeks. Which means, I need a convincing fiancée now. But I've been deployed for years and have no candidates. Rapunzel Robinson. It's the day of the Children's Charity Auction, and I'm stuck in an elevator with Cathy Dugan's bridal gown entry. If she doesn't get the highest bid, she loses control of her boutique to her evil stepmother. I can't let that happen to my boo. Crying out for help, a Navy SEAL named d'Artagnan tries to come to my rescue, but he ends up trapped with me. Although he's a hero, he is not Prince Charming. Not by a long shot. His smoldering stare is dangerously delicious and melts my inhibitions. One magical kiss later, I've gone risqué and gotten tangled up with him. When d'Artagnan discovers the beautiful woman, he seduced in the elevator is also his sister's best friend, he knows Rapunzel would be the perfect person to partner with to steal the family fortune. What happens next is what Fairy Tales are made of. Prepare to have your heart stolen in this realize that their online chemistry is nothing compared to their offline rivalry. Perpetually cheerful and eager to please, Gracie Cooper strives to make the best out of every situation. So when her father dies just months after a lung cancer diagnosis, she sets aside her dreams of pursuing her passion for art to take over his Midtown Manhattan champagne shop. She soon finds out that the store's profit margins are being squeezed perilously tight, and complicating matters further, a giant corporation headed by the impossibly handsome, but irritatingly arrogant Sebastian Andrews is proposing a buyout. But Gracie can't bear the thought of throwing away her father's dream like she did her own.

Overwhelmed and not wanting to admit to her friends or family that she's having second thoughts about the shop, Gracie seeks advice and solace from someone she's never met—the faceless “Sir”, with whom she connected on a blind dating app where matches get to know each other through messages and common interests before exchanging real names or photos. But although Gracie finds herself slowly falling for Sir online, she has no idea she's already met him in real life...and they can't stand each other.

Perhaps if they were less sensitive, less romantic, less tuned in to each other, less mature, or even more experienced it would have been easier. He couldn't afford to lose anything. He had nothing.

Less than nothing. But it made up his world. He was an innocent, even in the murky world around him, a good and decent man without guile who played cops and robbers for a living. Was it that or his sex appeal that stopped her in her tracks? Was it that combination? She didn't know, and she didn't know what he'd do if she just turned away but she didn't want to hurt him or see him hurt himself for her sake. Nor did she want to be hurt. Who am I? Who are you? Who is God? What should I do? What is the meaning of life? All of these questions have one ultimate answer: Just Love. But our human nature craves more answers to even more questions in order to address the challenges of life. This first volume of the 'Questions & Answers' series of JUST LOVE contains questions posed to Paramahansa Sri Swami Vishwananda in a number of Satsangs given around the world. The main themes found within this book are Love, Consciousness, Spirituality, and Acceptance, while more than 130 questions include: 'What is Love?', 'What is Self-Realisation?' and 'Is 2012 the dawn of a new age?'

nine full-length and twenty short plays. Purdy is one of the few contemporary American writers capable of writing tragedy—Tennessee Williams called him a uniquely gifted man of the theater. This collection presents four riveting and beautifully crafted works: Brice, The Paradise Circus, Where Quentin Goes, and Ruthanna Elder. Each explores a range of emotional and familial tangles, as fathers betray their sons and squander their inheritances, siblings compete for parental affection, and husbands and wives try to salvage meaning from their broken marriages. The plays are written in Purdy's authentic idiom, which Paul Bowles called the closest [we have] to a classical American colloquial.

From New York Times bestselling author Talia Hibbert comes an electric, domestic, roommates-to-lovers romance between a whirlwind party girl and her uptight best friend... Jasmine Allen believes in bad luck, great wine, and the seductive power of a stiletto heel. What she doesn't believe in is love. Her life is perfect without all that romance rubbish—until a plumbing disaster screws everything up and leaves Jas homeless. Luckily, she has someone to turn to: her best friend Rahul. For seven years, Rahul Khan has followed three simple rules. - Don't touch Jasmine if you can help it. - Don't look at her arse in that skirt. - And don't ever—ever—tell her you love her. He should've added another rule: Do not, under any circumstances, let Jas move into your house.

Now Rahul is living with the friend he can't have, and it's decimating his control. He knows their shared dinners aren't dates, their late-night kisses are a mistake, and the tenderness in Jasmine's gaze is only temporary. One wrong word could send his skittish best friend running. So why is he tempted to risk it all? This book was previously published as Wanna Bet?. The Roommate Risk is a steamy, standalone, diverse romance. This book is 75,000 words of fluff, angst, and extreme pleasure, with NO cliffhangers, NO cheating, and a guaranteed HEA. Please be aware: this story contains themes of parental neglect and abandonment, parental death, and alcohol dependence that could trigger certain audiences.

Søren Kierkegaard, the nineteenth-century Danish philosopher rediscovered in the twentieth century, is a major influence in contemporary philosophy, religion, and literature. He regarded Either/Or as the beginning of his authorship, although he had published two earlier works on Hans Christian Andersen and irony. The pseudonymous volumes of Either/Or are the writings of a young man (I) and of Judge William (II). The ironical young man's papers include a collection of sardonic aphorisms; essays on Mozart, modern drama, and boredom; and "The Seducer's Diary." The seeming miscellany is a reflective presentation of aspects of the "either," the esthetic view of life. Part II is an older friend's "or," the ethical life of integrated, authentic personhood, elaborated in discussions of personal becoming and of marriage. The resolution of the "either/or" is left to the reader, for there is no Part III until the appearance of Stages on Life's Way. The poetic-reflective creations of a master stylist and imaginative impersonator, the two men write in distinctive ways appropriate to their respective positions.

The Victorian theatrical partnership of the librettist W. S. Gilbert and composer Arthur Sullivan produced fourteen comic operas that would exact a major influence on the history of theatre. Such popular classics as 'H.M.S. Pinafore', 'The Pirates of Penzance' and 'The Mikado' conjured fanciful "topsy-turvy" worlds, where absurd premises are taken to a logical conclusion. Notable for their humour and pathos, these celebrated operas enjoyed an enduring international success and are still performed frequently throughout the English-speaking world. For the first time in digital publishing, this comprehensive eBook presents Gilbert's complete extant works, with numerous illustrations, rare texts, informative introductions and the usual Delphi bonus material. (Version 1) * Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Gilbert and Sullivan's lives and works * Concise introductions to the operas and other texts * All of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas, with individual contents tables * Features Gilbert's other dramatic plays and librettos, many appearing for the first time in digital publishing * Excellent formatting of the texts * Special chronological and alphabetical contents tables for Gilbert's poetry * Easily locate the poems or short stories you want to read * Includes Gilbert's complete Bab Ballads – available in no other

We do know that God is love and everything He does is out of His love for you. God's love is so glorious, magnificent, and splendid that He sent His son to die on the cross for you to free you from sin. God gave His son's life for yours. Jesus died so you could live. Romans 5:8 says, "But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." God shows His love for you by not only forgiving you of your sins, but by bringing you into His family. He has qualified you to share in His inheritance of the saints. (Col 1:12) This inheritance includes salvation, strength, hope, peace, comfort, wisdom, fellowship and so much more! God's love justifies your life and fills you with hope for the future. believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life.” Death has no power over those who love and are loved by God. And that is you and that is me. Paul the Apostle says he does not believe that anything can separate us from the love of God. God loves you and your insecurities. He is teaching you how to love yourself and how to love others. He is showing you the true meaning of His agape love and what it means to truly be loved. Love is the greatest gift one could ever give, and it is the greatest gift one can ever receive. The bible says that out of faith, hope and love, love is the greatest of the three. You have that love. Romans 8:35-39 NKJV “Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written: “For Your sake we are killed all day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.” Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” God loves you in-spite of your mistakes. You can mess up and God will still love you. Isn't that great to know that there is someone who loves you unconditionally? Get the book and be blessed!
