Rather than criticizing trappings of the holiday season, this book looks at them from the viewpoint of Christian contemplation, once aptly described as "a long, loving look at the real." The author, a Benedictine monk who lives in the center of downtown Newark, New Jersey, invites the reader to join him on his daily walks as he points out dozens of often-unnoticed connections between our holidays and the spiritual meaning of Advent and Christmas. In a string of colored lights, a crowd of shoppers, or the window of a toy store, he uncovers such traditional Advent themes as watchful waiting, repentance, and selfless love. On the bustling sidewalks, he introduces us to Isaiah, John the Baptist, and Jesus himself, all speaking their ancient Advent and Christmas messages of peace and hope and good will.

Angels are beings of an exalted order. For the most part their activity goes beyond the scope of everyday human concerns. Yet many of us have felt their presence. Socrates had his daemon. William Blake received artistic guidance from his departed brother. Spirit guides are frequently termed guardian angels, but it's much more accurate to describe them as helpers and comforters, mentors and companions. Laeh Maggie Garfield, nationally known teacher and healer, says her own spirit helper promises "faith, love, creativity, joyous self-expression and the flow of abundance" in this fascinating introduction to working with your own guardian angel and other spirit companions.

At a time when injustice, immorality and sin ran rampant, the religion of Islam dawned to revive the bond between humanity and its Creator, and to establish peace in the world. It was at the hand of the Prophet of Islam that an unparalleled moral and spiritual transformation took place. But the Holy Prophet Muhammad, peace and blessings of Allah be upon him, prophesied that a time would come when the true teachings of Islam would be forgotten and at this time a divinely appointed reformer would appear to rejuvenate Islam. In fulfilment of this prophecy, Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad, peace be upon him, appeared in Qadian, India, and claimed to be the divinely appointed reformer awaited by all questions are answered. This awareness itself thinks, organizes and loves. It balances, neutralizes and heals human problems, and relates man to the Divine. In different scriptures it has been named as divine breath or the flood of bliss. It is innate in every human being, though unconscious for most. Great prophets and founders of different world religions preached the lifestyle which would optimize man's awakening to its conscious knowledge ("self-realization," "second birth," "mukti"). Divine incarnations, who came on this earth at different stages of man's evolution, prepared the setting for its manifestation, on a mass scale, as the phenomenon of "collective consciousness." Every reader is invited to verify personally the existence and the validity of this new awareness; many already have.

It seeks to portray early Protestant versions of the church in its visible and invisible dimensions in the context of their respective ecclesiological settings, to assess these concepts on the basis of ecclesiological realities at the beginning of the third millennium and to propose a re-definition of such a "Church in Duality" for our time based on and developed in the form of Protestant ecclesiology.
