HISTORY, HISTORIANS & THE PAST is a collection of more than 3,000 quotations, aphorisms, epigrams, maxims, tweets, and musings by some 2,500 prominent, diverse, and little-known historians, writers, philosophers, poets, artists, playwrights, scientists, politicians, and others. It includes insights into the definition of history, the role of historians, and the value of past experiences on present-day decisions and future planning. What sets this collection apart from other books of quotations is that each entry is sourced, verified, and cited. Each entry is also nested in context, including information about each author and the circumstances in which the words were written or said. In addition, it is unique among books of quotations with the large number of contemporary authors, many active into the twenty-first century. Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR (Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. (2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images, so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.

Excerpt from Dictionary of Latin and Greek Quotations, Proverbs, Maxims, and Mottos, Classical and Mediaeval, Including Law Terms and Phrases Dictionary of Latin Quotations more copious, correct, and complete than any hitherto published had long been a cherished idea of the publisher, and awaited only time and circumstance for its development. Finding in the present editor a gentleman well qualified both by reading and industry to carry out his views, he placed the materials in his hands, and these with large additions, the fruit of further researches, are now laid before the reader. The present collection differs from its predecessors in being limited exclusively to Latin and Greek quotations, the publisher intending, at a later period, to give French, Italian, Spanish, and German, in a separate volume. This arrangement has enabled him to nearly quadrupled the number of Latin quotations given heretofore, and to extend the number of Greek from about twenty to upwards of five hundred; amounting in all to an aggregate of more than eight thousand.
