Do you want to learn Passive Income Strategies? If YES, then keep reading... Earning a living takes time, effort and a lot of work. But the problem with most jobs is that once you clock out, you're not earning money anymore. That's no way to get ahead, especially if you're wanting to take some time off now and then. However, more and more people are realizing that it is possible to make money while they sleep, with the power of Passive Income. The internet has created a vast amount of opportunities for you to develop your very own Passive Income Engine, a system in which you use different online services and tools to slowly generate wealth for you at all hours of the day. The internet never sleeps and with billions of people visiting websites each and every day, there has never been a better time to develop your own Passive Income Stream. The Goal of this book is to help you, the reader, pick a few passive income ideas to work off of. You don't have to do everything on this list, but if you picked three of four and worked diligently to set them up, you can be making money in no time! Passive Income can be defined simply as making money without actively contributing any work. While most jobs generate active income, where hours worked= hours paid, passive income relies instead on creating interesting or attractive products and then setting up a method for customers to find said product with minimal active effort on your part. By building a strong system that attracts people from the outside and converts them to buy whatever product or service you are offering, all you need to do is maintain what you have built, which takes minimal effort and time commitment. It is important to note that building a Passive Engine System requires plenty of work before it is ready to go. It takes discipline, hard work and a willingness to try over and over until you finally figure out what works best for you. Passive Income is like firing a rocket into space. You want to put as much fuel as you can in the rocket at first, because taking off requires a ton of effort. However, once that rocket breaks through the atmosphere and is in zero gravity, pushing the rocket takes considerably less energy. Your work, time and dedication to building a passive income engine will determine the ultimate success of your project. If you want to generate Passsive Income, then you will first need to invest either time, money or energy into a project. Depending on the results that you're looking for, you may need to invest large quantities of all three. While it may be easy to think that you can get rich online without much investment, the truth is that most big earners either invested a significant amount of either time or money into their work. Passive Income is a reflection of what you have invested. If you aren't willing to invest resources adequately, you won't see returns. There is simply no way around it. The good news is that while some types of passive income systems require a lot of money, others, such as creative fields, can be done relatively cheap. The harder you work on a project, the more hours you put in, the bigger chance you have of success. There is no guarantee that you will succeed for the first time, especially if you are working in a creative field that often requires some kind of a budget for advertising. However, hustle and elbow grease can go a long way in helping you to achieve your goals of Passive Income. What are You WAITING FOR? Click BUY NOW!

Discovering how to create streams of income that continually grows.

Investments, real estate, and cash lending were some of the very few forms of passive income we had in the past. As you can see, it took money (and quite a significant amount) to make money. But with the rise of the Internet, more and more people have the possibility to create passive income, with little to no financial investment. Although today it is easier than ever to get started, creating passive income is no easy task. If you want to be successful, think of it as a business. Make a small plan, get started, and commit to consistently working on it. Easier said than done. This planner is designed specifically to help you decide, start creating and building streams of passive income by selling products. There is an initial assessment and brainstorming spread where you lay out your skills and strengths, to help you decide which streams of passive income are best for you to pursue. Some product and platform examples are provided just before the deciding spread, where you commit to one type of passive income stream you'd like to start with. There are spreads for five streams of passive income. For each stream, there are planning and assessment spreads. The role of these pages is to help you figure out whether your passive income stream is profitable and sustainable. Based on these results you can decide to continue with your passive income stream, or move onto another one. When starting out, it is important to achieve a balance between quantity and quality of products you create. Some streams of passive income, stock photography for example, require you to create a fairly large number of products before you will see any substantial income. However, to make any sales, you also have to create high quality products; in this example, high resolution, usable and in demand images. Therefore, when you commit to one stream of passive income, consistently work on it for at least one year before deciding if it is successful or not. As you are creating and listing more and more products for sale, you will have to keep track of them.

Starting from page 51, there are product tracking spreads for you to record everything you are creating and selling. mNow what are you waiting for? Start creating passive income streams, and make money while you sleep!

How important is having multiple streams of Income? Multiple active income streams will help to ensure that your earnings are somewhat stable. They will help to close gaps between earnings and spending. However, minimizing spending is a better way in shrinking those gags. Make a serious commitment to spend less than you earn. Focus on paying down your debt with the difference in your earning and your spending once you have built a small emergency fund. Next figure out what you are good at doing. When you know that, figure out a way to make some additional cash from what you are good at doing. There is usually a market of some sort for most our traits and skills. Once you know what you are good at and know of a way to make some money, commit some time. Turn off the television for a couple of hours each day. Use that time to make some money with that new found time. Chances are good that you can make some cash, though maybe not much in the beginning, with your time. This time will become your first alternative income stream. Then use the cash from that first income stream to something financially positive. Do not spend the money right away. Instead pay down some more debt or invest it into another income stream. Our real goal should be financial independence. If we are not completely dependent upon one sole income stream - like a primary job - then we have some independence to have and to make more choices in our lives that will make our lives more enjoyable, rewarding, and meaningful.

Do you have to have money to make money? What about money that keeps coming in month after month that you don't have to work for? This is called passive income or residual income. It is the same thing as royalties (income I'll generate from a book like this one) that come in every month like clock-work. Listen, there are a lot of ways to invest money. I think investing is great. I just think there is a more intelligent way to invest that benefits people even at the bottom of society's social hierarchy. I can teach you how to make more money per year than what you'd earn if you save a hundred thousand dollars and invested it at the average rate of return paid out in the stock market and you won't have to have even a dollar saved to make this money. Best of all, it's just as passive; meaning, you won't have to work your tale off to make the money--it's passive residual income. How about enough to live on? Sure. Why not? It can be done. I'm doing it. Others are doing it. Better question: Why not you? Seriously, quit thinking so inside the box. Quit listening to the advice that you've been listening to for so long that hasn't gotten you very far (if anywhere) in life. Be bold. Take this book, read it, and do what I tell you to do. Then stand back and watch the money keep rolling in. Month after month. Year after year. More and more all the time. Grab Your Copy Now!
