The first Ramadan as a new Muslim can be very exciting. Many things are new, and some things can be challenging. A journal is always a good idea, not only to write down thoughts and ideas, but in this case enabling the person to write down their very first experience of fasting for 30 days. Every ninth page has a spot for new Du'as that the person wants to learn during the month of Ramadan, or that the person has already learned during Ramadan. If you are not a new Muslim but you know a convert; take advantage and present it as a gift. This is also a great motivational gift for children, who would probably love to read about their first Ramadan experience later in life.
