Guiding girls toward a meaningful prayer life and a more intimate relationship with God. Prayer doesn't always come easy for kids. This guided journal helps pre-teen girls learn how to talk and listen to God. Each reading offers a new topic with a Bible verse, illustration from Bible characters or Christians, a sample prayer, and guided questions to help girls form their own prayers. There is also a special "Prayer Path" section for them to record their prayers and see God's loving answers. The cool design is appealing to pre-teen girls with a flex-cover and elastic band closure. Along with guided journaling pages, there are extra blank pages for die-hard journalists!

GOD'S GREAT BOOK uses classic biblical stories, questions and activities to relate its 282 Bible lessons (including Epistles) to children. It is adaptable for ages 3-13 and flexible for use in the classroom, home school, retreats, VBS, and other group settings, or may be read alone by a middle-school child.

The 40 Day Challenge Web Excerpt: Introduction to this Book: You may ask why I chose the topic, A 40 day Challenge. Why did you not select a devotional book on the traditional 365 day scale? Or you may ask why not, a 2 week trial or a 30 day trial. why 40 days? The bible is full of examples of 40 days as anointed time with God. Lets take a look at some of these examples.

To start with I am going to list for you all of the examples of 40 days, 40 weeks, 40 months and 40 years that I could find in the bible. Then I will explain to you why the Lord made 40 days so important to me. 40 days: 1) Ezekiel fasted for 40 days. The Lord told him to lie on his left side 1 day for each year that the children of Israel had sinned against the Lord. 2) Jesus fasted 40 days in the wilderness and was tempted of Satan prior to starting his ministry 3) It rained upon the earth 40 days when Noah and his family went into the Ark. 4) The Egyptians embalmed Joseph and the people mourned 40 days as per their custom for him. 5) Moses in Exodus went up on the mount and was before the Lord 40 days and the Lord gave him the laws and commandments. 6) The 12 spies checked out the land for 40 days then brought Moses their report. 7) Moses went back upon the mount for another 40 days of prayer and fasting in Deut. 8) Goliath presented himself morning & evening for 40 days before the children of Israel tempting them to send a man to fight him. 9) In I Kings the prophet rose, eat and drank and went 40 days on the strength of that meal unto Horeb the Mount of God. 10) Ezekiel lay for 40 days on his left side as penance for the 40 years of iniquity of the children of Israel. 11) Jonah preached, Yet 40 days and I will destroy this city, saith the Lord. 12) Jesus was on earth 40 days after his resurrection from the dead before he ascended to heaven. 40 weeks: 1) The normal delivery time of a baby. The mother carries the baby an average of 36-40 weeks. That is 9 months give or take two weeks as most doctors figure it. 2) 40 weeks stood for new life, new birth in the Old Testament 3) Old Testament Prophecy refers to 40 weeks. This is future translated into generations. 40 months: 1) Each time that the Lord send a word of warning to the children of Israel to clean up their ways, turn from their idols and return to Bethel, he gave them 40 months of words from the prophets and challenges to change, then when they did not turn their hearts toward God, he sent them into captivity. 2) 40 months is the probationary period of God. 40 years: 1) Moses was 40 years old when he killed the Egyptian and fled to the wilderness. 2) Moses remained for 40 years in the wilderness before he returned to Egypt to lead the children of Israel out of bondage. He was 80 years old. 3) The children of Israel wondered around in the wilderness, then came to Jordan and refused to cross over. Their faith was weak. God sent them back into the wilderness to ramble some more. For a total of 40 years they wandered in the wilderness. Then God took Moses on his 120 birthday. Because their faith was so weak they were sent back out to wander another 40 years and that generation was not allowed to see the promise land. 4) After wandering around for a 40 year period in the wilderness, then Joshua led the Children of Israel across Jordan and took Jericho. 5) Isaac was 40 years old when he took Rebekah to wife 6) Esau was 40 years old when he took the Hittite to wife 7) Joshua was 40 years old when Moses assigned him to go into Jericho as a spy 8) 40 years later, Joshua led the children of Israel into Jericho 9) In Judges the land had rest 40 years 10) Also in Judges the land was in quite for 40 years---peace. 11) When the children of Israel did not obey God in Judges, he delivered them up to the Philistines control for 40 years 12) Samuel judged Israel forty years 13) Sauls son was 40 years old when he be

To any woman seeking encouragement, contentment, unity, true joy, and peace in times of trial, this is the Bible study for you! During this Bible study, we will study the life of Paul and the background to the book of Philippians. Then, we will study the book of Philippians verse by verse. During this study, you will come across the themes of perseverance during persecution, learn how to find true joy and peace in Christ, be encouraged to give generously to missions, learn how to strive toward unity in our church bodies so we can fulfill the Great Commission, and learn how to strive toward unity in our own personal relationships, and much more. By the end of this study, you should be able to find joy, peace, and unity in all circumstances! Finally a book that will teach you how to pray. This book has customized prayers for many aspects of your life. Once you have learned the key ingredients to praying you will have the tools to customize your own prayers.

Featuring powerful prayers from the book of Psalms, this guide to praying with intensity and authenticity covers worshipping God, praying for people who do us wrong, and being honest with God about our feelings. Original.

As science and politics engage in a never-ending battle over the environment, A Life of Grace for the Whole World re-claims the theology of salvation and redemption for all creation. Using the House of Bishops Pastoral Teaching on the Environment -- the first statement on the environment from The Episcopal Church leadership -- as a guide, A Life of Grace engages participants in understanding how the call to care for Creation informs and deepens appreciation and love for God and Gods work in Creation, and how that finds expression in the faith life of individuals and churches.

Mitchell Andrews made a bad mistake. His failure to cope made it worse. He turned to alcohol, and his angry outbursts drove his wife away--but it drove him to find Christ, sobriety, and newfound hope. He attempts to win back the love of his life, but the mistakes of his past threaten to undo his second chance. Will he come undone at his weakest moment, or will God give him the strength to endure?

The Bible is full of God's promises. Everything He says is true and He will always follow through on His word. The book you are holding is designed to be a FUN way to learn some of those promises and make you want to learn even more God wants you to talk to Him all the time about everything. Prayer is a great way to communicate with God. To some of us, prayer can sometimes feel like we are talking into space but GOD HEARS YOU. One of the most important ways God speaks to you is through scripture from The Bible. It's like an instruction book for life Our prayer is that this book will teach you, help and inspire you and that each page you land on will be the message God wants you hear that day. How does it work? 1. Each morning, flip the pages until you land on a message 2. Read your message for the day (kind of like a fortune cookie but WAY better) 3. Enjoy your message for the day because that is God speaking directly to you 4. At night, take your bible and look up the scripture that proves that your message is true. 5. Write the actual scripture from your bible on the lines in the book.

Teaching English as a Foreign Language (TEFL) or to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) is a hot career choice these days. The desire to see the world is common. Travel is one way, but people are finding it hard to take vacations these days. What if you could combine seeing the world and working? It is not easy to find jobs overseas unless you have very specialized skills and advanced foreign language fluency. For native speakers of English, TEFL/TESOL seems like a great solution. There are as many ways to teach English overseas as there are people willing to teach overseas. Indeed, your motivation for doing so should be your main influence when selecting where and how to teach. Here are just a few of the ways to teach English overseas:

- Here are many chains such as English First and Wall Street that operate language centers in countries around the world
- On several continents, and in Asia especially, there are also small, individual language centers, such as the hagwons in South Korea
- You can teach in a public schools at pre/primary, middle and high school levels.
- You can also teach at private schools. Many countries have an American school or a Canadian school, or and International School offering an IB program
- You can teach at public universities. Teaching hours are very few, but class size is very high, so if you're teaching composition, for example, you'll have a lot of correcting to do
- You can teach at one of the many private colleges popping up all over- some with associations with US or Australian universities
- You can teach as a volunteer at a village school or in an orphanage
- You can teach as a missionary or with one of the many religious service organizations that are non-proselytizing
- You can teach executives as a consultant with one firm (inhouse) or with a service that has many corporate clients
- You can teach with a government program such as EPIC in Korea or JET in Japan. This means you will have many peers teaching in country with you, though perhaps not in your town
- You can teach with one of your own government's programs- as a Peace Corps volunteer.
- You can teach with a multinational organization - as a United Nations volunteer, or with an NGO teaching refugees for example.
- You can teach as a private tutor or join the growing ranks of people teaching English online There is bound to be a TESOL/TEFL job that's the right fit for you. How to find that right fit is what this book is all about. HowExpert publishes quick 'how to' guides on all topics from A to Z by everyday experts.

These delightful stories about children and families from any different countries and cultures introduce children to the realities of poverty and injustice, and inspire them to make a difference.

A fine line exists between normalcy and megalomania, and in these five episodes you experience all the possible shades of gray. Ride alongside Rodney on his roller-coaster as he morphs from husband and father, devoted believer, and hard-working employee to vision-driven, delusional and psychotic loner, ready to rule the world as king. He wields ultimate power in his mind and commands all of creation. Feel his sobbing and hear his cries as he moans over the deaths of first his father, a brother, and then a religious leader. Join him as he flies halfway around the world to the Middle East, a boy from Jersey with only his wits and inner voices to guide him. He manages to approach the doors of the seat of world government. Will he knock on them, impart his wisdom, and succeed in his God-given Mission?

In 2011, with the assistance of her family and friends at St. Andrew's United Methodist Church and her senior living facility, Ann's Choice, author Polly Riddle took a memorable journey in response to a special call from God. The Best to the Guest is her entertaining and inspiring diary of that journey to Liberia. Her first mission trip to Liberia, West Africa, in 2010 was with Compassion Corps, so naturally she asked them to handle her travel and work arrangements for this trip as well. As her mission approached, she particularly looked forward to spending extended time with her dear Liberian friend, Marinda, a school principal. To insure that her trip was successful, Polly prepared a curriculum and gathered supplies to take with her to Liberia. Her call from God was to teach adults to read and enable them to do arithmetic on a second grade level. In addition, she taught the youngsters Sunday school songs, Bible stories, and phonemic awareness using games. Once in Liberia, she was always ready for an adventure, rarely saying no to an invitation, no matter what it was. Whether it was going to the market, exploring the many diverse churches, or visiting a bamboo field, Polly was intrigued by everything she saw and everyone she met in Liberia. Sharing the humor of everyday life, The Best to the Guest tells Polly's entertaining and inspiring three-month story in diary form.

Little women: Novel chronicling the joys and sorrows of the four March sisters as they grow into young women in mid-nineteenth-century New England.

Finally, a book that has been created specifically with men in mind. The prayers in this book contain the powerful ingredients of wisdom, strength and courage. Updated and revised 3rd edition, author-authorized version. Ariana and Jean-Marc Perrault have built a wonderful life together in France. They have raised their six children to believe in God and stay close to the Church. Along the way they faced many challenges and relied on their faith to see them through. Now, as the shadows darken around their family once again, they struggle to find strength and comfort in the face of almost unendurable heartache. Pauline, their adopted daughter, is gravely ill. After sixteen years of hoping and praying for a miracle, how can they bear to let her go? And how can Emeri, Pauline's first love, reconcile such a terrible loss with what she has taught him about the gospel? Meanwhile, unaware of their sister's worsening condition, Marie-Thérèse and Josette are in America attending Brigham Young University. Marie-Thérèse is only marking time until she can serve a mission . . . but will the handsome Mathieu change her mind? And beautiful, flighty Josette doesn't know what she wants—until a near tragedy teaches her what is really important in life. Follow the Perrault daughters as they grow from young women to wives with children of their own, facing and overcoming challenges that will resonate with readers of all ages. From life's darkest moments to its sweetest joys, author Rachel Ann Nunes skillfully portrays the characters and events that will give you an unforgettable Glimpse of Eternity.

Finally, a book that has been created specifically with women in mind. The prayers in this book contain the powerful ingredients of wisdom, strength and courage.

For an important correction and helpful tips for facilitating this course, visit TheSignificantWoman.com/facilitators/tips-for-soaring-facilitators/ Evangelistic Life-Coaching Course for Women 158 pages, full-color Facilitator Guide Are you looking for a unique way to reach the hearts of non-Christian women and share the gospel with them? Would you like to have a small group evangelistic resource to use in your neighborhood, on your campus, in your office, or with friends or family? SOARING may be the very resource you're looking for. SOARING is a small group evangelistic, life-coaching course that any Christian woman can easily facilitate. In this course women identify and celebrate their uniqueness, consider God as their life foundation and discover their direction in life as they pursue their personal life design. The Facilitator Guide equips you to facilitate each Life-Coaching Group session. Facilitator notes, positioned on each participant page, explain how to facilitate the content for your group members. Additional input and instructions are included in the Facilitator Instructions section and on supplemental pages. The Facilitator Guide also includes four copies of the mini-book, Can God Meet the Longing of Your Heart? All of this makes facilitating this course easy and enjoyable. When inviting women, you explain that this course covers all areas of life—relational, vocational and spiritual—and that you will be sharing from your life, including your spiritual perspective as a Christian. Since this is a Christian website and most of the women in your group will be non-Christians, it is recommended that you purchase the Participant Books for your group and have the women reimburse you. SOARING contains a clear and simple presentation of how Christ can become a woman's life foundation. The course is designed to ensure an ongoing, positive community environment for the group, no matter what each woman's response is to the idea of God as their life foundation.

In this revised edition of his small group guidebook, Jeffrey Arnold discusses the basic components and dynamics of small groups and offers training and resources to help you get started in effective small group ministry.

Here Sr. Janet addresses the awesome task of catechists to share meaningful prayer with those they teach. Her goal in this rich and very inspiring resource is to help catechists help children (and themselves) experience prayer as a deep and profound relationship with God. To this end, Sr. Janet offers numerous creative ideas using the alphabet as her guide. A great prayer resource for catechists!

The Yada Yada Prayer Group is in trouble—and they're having a hard time getting out. Jodi Baxter is feeling overwhelmed, to say the least. Every day it seems that more blessings, problems, and everything in between crop up among her Yada Yada sisters, and their prayer list is getting out of control. Not only are the Yada Yadas still recovering from the vicious racial attack on Mark, but Ruth and Ben's midlife pregnancy takes a dangerous turn, Avis's daughter and grandbaby show up unannounced, Florida's artistic son gets caught tagging, and Uptown is talking about merging with New Morning into one racially mixed church—raising anxiety and stress to new levels. To top it all off, Jodi keeps saying yes—to everything. It's getting harder to see God in the everyday rat race of life, especially in the face of exhaustion. With so many burdens resting on her circle of sisters, Jodi finds herself trapped by the good—and bad—habit of trying to fix everything and everyone. After lots (and lots) of failures, Jodi begins to learn that God can use anything, even the messes we make, to accomplish His good purposes. What will it take to help the Yada Yadas focus on God's promises instead of getting caught by the lies we so easily believe?
