

My Vision Challenges In The Race For Excellence

I have always been fascinated by the story of the lion being the king of the jungle, and through the benefit of hindsight, the inspiration to do this mini secret of success book was as a result of the might and grace the grace of the lion. On May 19, 2014 few days to my birthday, I wrote an elaborate piece in my column for BUSINESS WORLD in my segment called Business world on His Highness UAE Vice President, Prime Minister and Ruler of Dubai His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum, titled: MAN BEHIND EMIRATE AIRLINE. Few days later, on my birthday, MAY 29TH 2014 I got a parcel as birthday present and in the neatly wrapped pack was a big book by the subject matter himself, Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum, the voluminous book titled: MY VISION, Challenges in the Race for Excellence. I love what I saw at the back of the book about the Lion and the gazelle as researched by the author.: "With each new day in Africa, a gazelle wakes up knowing he must outrun the fastest lion or perish. At the same time, a lion stirs and stretches, knowing he must outrun the fastest gazelle or starve. It is no different for the human race. Whether you consider yourself a gazelle or a lion, you simply have to run faster than others to survive. "In His Highness Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum viewpoint, life consist of a number of opportunities and greater opportunities do not come knocking on people doors. Whoever wants such opportunities must grab them when they arise, for his people and for himself. We have to be powerful, strong-willed, determined and willing to grasp such opportunities, so that we do not have to scavenge the leftovers of lions. Not long after my reading this story of lion and gazelle, I was in the gigantic Winners Chapel one Sunday and here was the anointed man of God, Bishop David Oyedepo telling his mammoth flock the need to think and start living like lion in the race for life rather than acting like cows. It is not a surprise that the narration and motivation of the story of lion as told by the Bishop can be said to be the true motivation behind this book in your hand today. However it must be noted that the writer has gone a step forward to talk about the much speculated worth of the man of God, what Forbes said he is worth and of course the book is further spiced with a rare never before seen type of quotes or inspirational sayings from the man, called to liberate his people from abject lack or one manner of illness or the other. I am confident that no matter your race, religion or age, this book can in one way or the other be of great motivation to you in your drive to either live like a lion or a gazelle- whether you call or see yourself as either of the

I felt I had been placed in the center of something that was alive, pulsating with life. I knew God had placed me there and that he was in control. As I stood there sobbing, I felt something the consistency of liquid being poured over my head again and again. It ran down the entire length of my body. My knees buckled and I fell to the floor from the weight of it. With each pour I felt a love for my father that was so big and powerful that I actually felt my body would burst. This was not a natural love; it was far greater. As this “liquid” was being poured upon me, I became aware of a powerful presence in the room. Then I heard the Lord say to me, “I had to anoint you so that you could feel just a little of the love I have for your father.”

Interdisciplinary in approach, this volume explores and deciphers the symbolic value and iconicity of the built environment in the Arab Gulf Region, its aesthetics, language and performative characteristics. Bringing together a range of studies by artists, curators and scholars, it demonstrates how Dubai appeared - at least until the financial crisis - to be leading the construction race and has already completed a large number of its landmark architecture and strategic facilities. In contrast, cities like the Qatari capital Doha still appear to be heavily 'under construction' and in countries like the Sultanate of Oman, ultra-luxury tourism projects were started only recently. While the construction of artificial islands, theme parks and prestige sport facilities has attracted considerable attention, much less is known about the region's widespread implementation of innovative infrastructure such as global container ports, free zones, inter-island causeways and metro lines. This volume argues that these endeavours are not simply part of a strategy to prepare for the post-oil era for future economic survival and prosperity in the Lower Gulf region, but that they are also aiming to strengthen identitarian patterns and specific national brands. In doing so, they exhibit similar, yet remarkably diverse modes of engaging with certain global trends and present - questionably - distinct ideas for putting themselves on the global map. Each country aims to grab Traditional Chinese edition of Drive: The Surprising Truth About What Motivates Us by Daniel Pink.

Challenges the fact that humans are motivated by hope of gain and loss of fear, citing examples that intrinsic motivation comes from the opportunity to grow, to have some autonomy over the work that we do, and to take part in something bigger than oneself.

An expert perspective on 21st century education
What can you learn on a cell phone? Almost anything! How does that concept fit with our traditional system of education? It doesn't. Best-selling author and futurist Marc Prensky's book of essays challenges educators to "reboot" and make the changes necessary to prepare students for 21st century careers and living. His “bottom-up” vision includes students’ ideas about what they need from teachers, schools, and education. Also featured are easy-to-do, high-impact classroom strategies that help students acquire “digital wisdom.” This thought-provoking text is organized into two sections that address: Rethinking education (including what and how we teach and measuring learning) 21st century learning and technology in the classroom (including games, YouTube, and more)

This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the European Conference on Information Literacy, ECIL 2013, held in Istanbul Turkey, in October 2013. The 73 revised full papers presented together with two keynotes, 9 invited papers and four doctoral papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 236 submissions. The papers are organized in topical sections on overview and research; policies and strategies; theoretical framework; related concepts; citizenship and digital divide; disadvantaged groups; information literacy for the workplace and daily life; information literacy in Europe; different approaches to information literacy; teaching and learning information literacy; information literacy instruction; assessment of information literacy; information literacy and K-12; information literacy and higher education; information literacy skills of LIS students; librarians, libraries and ethics.

In the urgency to respond to the challenges posed by diversity in contemporary societies, the discussion of normative foundations is often overlooked. This book takes that important first step, and offers new ways of thinking about diversity. Its contribution to an ongoing dialogue in this field lies in the construction of a normative framework which endeavours to better understand the challenges of justice in diverse societies. By applying this normative framework to specific and broader examples of injustices in the spheres of religion, culture, race, ethnicity, gender and nationality, the book demonstrates how constitutional pluralist discourses can contribute both to new and legal responses to diversity. The book will be of interest to legal professionals, policy makers, law students and scholars concerned with exploring diversity in the 21st century.
