This translation includes explanatory footnotes marking variant readings from the Old Syriac, Eastern text, and other Peshitta manuscripts. Other footnotes provide cultural understanding and a system of abbreviations that mark idioms and figures of speech so that they are easily recognisable. The translation is as literal as possible, but with readable English, giving the flavour and rhythm of Eastern language. Aramaic is the language of the first century and the Peshitta is the earliest complete manuscript of the New Testament. The Gwilliam text, from which this work is based, is a Latin translation of the Peshitta.

When we read an English translation of the Bible we define the words within it according to our modern vocabulary allowing our culture and language to influence how we read and interpret the Bible. The Bible was written by ancient Hebrews whose culture and language was very different from our own and must be read and interpreted through their eyes. When we define the names of God using our culture and language we lose the Hebraic meanings behind the original Hebrew names of God. Consequently the true nature and character of God is hidden behind the veil of time and culture. By understanding the various names of God through the vocabulary and language of the ancient Hebrews, the nature and character of God is revealed to us in a new light. The prophet Zechariah described the character of God with the words "sh'mo ehhad" translated as His Name is One (Zechariah 14:9). This phrase beautifully describes the character of God from a Hebraic perspective that is lost to us through translation and unfamiliarity with ancient Hebrew culture.

Visually Appealing: Maps, drawings, and photos illuminate the commentary and visualize important information. The Bible is a book written by God and the formation of His family. Our believing, knowing, and understanding are the revelation of Christ already in us, which must be squeezed and shaped into His image so that when others see us, they see their Father. God is looking for his sons to do this. The Book of Revelation reveals Christ in us, which must be manifested as the body with Jesus as the head in order for the return of the Lord to be revealed. This book is the instruction of the spiritual process that must take place individually and then corporately in each child of God to walk in the authority and power as a son. What he created in spirit must come forth in the flesh with his image and likeness. We must know in our heart that we are an offspring, a portion of the original. Jesus has been blowing the sound of our jubilee since he rose from the grave. He is waiting for us to hear this sound and enter into his rest. We have the ability today to know the power of his resurrection while in our natural body. The Book of Revelation tells us how. God is looking for His sons He created in the beginning to take dominion and authority. The Book of Revelation reveals Christ in us who must be manifested as His body with Jesus as the head. When Jesus said, "It is finished," was he just making a way for personal salvation with God, or was there a bigger picture? John 14:12 says, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." For over 2000 years the body of Christ has been liken to kings and lords hiding in a cave waiting for a someday when they get to heaven to receive their inheritance as a son of God. When Jesus died he gave us the ram's horn, the shofar, to declare that our JUBILEE is here NOW for us to receive. The Book of Revelation teaches us how to hear the sound of this horn, the voice of the Father, which brings hope and challenge for us to open the doors to our true identity as a “son” of God. It will set us free from the captivity and bondages in our lives as we find out that as He is, so are we today in this world with His power and His authority.

For centuries there has been controversy over the role of the wife. So much so, that it is difficult to know who to believe. The Proper Role of the Wife is a research based study of the wife's role with a Scriptural answer. It dives into the heated arguments of the past and present from well known philosophers, women's liberals, conservatives, and biblical scholars. The data compiled will equip the Christian counselor with the proper perspective and enlighten readers as they explore the discrepancy and divergence from the Biblical patterns of Scripture to the solutions presented. Married women and especially women of the Christian faith wrestle with understanding their role as a wife. For example: ? What does it mean to leave and cleave? ? Is the Bible out-dated as it relates to submission? ? What is a helpmeet, and is it really necessary? ? Are there any set rules for how a wife should behave? ? How is a wife supposed to fit in the Church? Even though all of these questions are clearly outlined in Scripture with guiding principles that delineate the proper role and behavior of women in marriage, the actual role and behavior of women has diverged significantly from the pattern outlined in Scripture. In an effort to help rectify this problem, Rebekah Prewitt contrasts various world views with the Scripture. One by one, you will see how the answers of the "experts" come into conflict with God's Word and undermine the principles that Christians hold most dear.
