This volume from 1860 contains a thorough history and overview of the former counties of Cumberland and Westmorland, which now make up the county of Cumbria and comprise the majority of the Lake District.

A new series of the Scottish antiquary established 1886.

Accounts of the Feoffees of the Town Lands of Bury St Edmunds, 1569-1622 Boydell Press

The reigns of Edward VI and Mary I, and the early years of Elizabeth I were vital times for naval administration and witnessed the apprenticeship of many who would lead the service later during Elizabeth's reign. This volume includes the extant Treasurer's and Victualler's accounts, with entries from the State Papers which augment the calendar summaries previously published. Documents are also printed for the first time from a variety of archives in Britain and abroad.

In the absence of borough status and after the winding up of the guilds, the townsmen of Bury St Edmunds experiment with town government.

"Transcripts, Latin, of officials' accounts. Appended docs. include the accounts of Bradwas manor, 1521-2 and a Winchester hordarian's account for 1330"--Texts and calendars / E.L.C. Mullins.
