With this book you will learn how to use and master at once the intermediate level of the oral language in English. At the end of it you will be able to handle with ease the main linguistic structures in order to better understand and express yourself in the English language orally, and above all to be able to successfully pass the intermediate level examination B1 of the language, either the one proposed by the University of Cambridge, the ISE by the Trinity, TOEFL, IELTS, Aptis or the one by any official school of languages. The main objective is therefore not to learn but above all to apply an intermediate level of the English language in order to understand and use it for academic purposes, but also in the day-to-day for work, social and/or personal purposes. The student will be able to work at one's own pace, as it includes the several topics that usually appear in the B1 level exams: work, crime, society, stereotypes, food, free time, physical appearance, nature and the environment, health, education, the media, etc.
