Bernie Sindler was a protégé of Meyer Lansky--who he considered his surrogate father--in the early Mob-ruled days of Las Vegas. Though not a member of the Mob, Sindler was associated with many notorious Mob and Outfit members as a partner in Las Vegas operations, an employee, or as a close friend and associate. His status and knowledge as an insider intimately familiar with their operations and lives made Sindler privy to much of the murder and mayhem in the early days of Las Vegas. In this book, Sindler shares a behind-the-scenes look at famous and infamous denizens of Las Vegas including Lansky, Bugsy Siegel, Johnny Rosselli, Lucky Luciano, Moe Dalitz, Virginia Hill, and Frank Sinatra, and the notorious multiple murder case at Rancho Circle--the only survivor being Bernie's future wife. Sindler, a vigorous man in his nineties, is the last living link to the old Mob bosses in Vegas, and the ways of gangsters made famous through the years through movies and books. He is also one of the few men who knew the real stories behind notorious events in Las Vegas history. Those unknown stories are revealed in this riveting autobiography.

The Temple of Hanuman is a conversation between Aurangzeb, the Muslim emperor of India, and a mysterious Brahmin boy whose temple Aurangzeb's soliders are demolishing. Allowed to speak freely to Aurangzeb, the boy explains the essential compatibility of dharmic religion with semitic religion, including Islam. Drawing upon Hindu scripture and traditions, The Temple of Hanuman explores the possibility that all religions belong to God and explains how this is conceivable, despite the apparent contradictions between the world's many religions.

Mobile Notaries have been a recognized profession for many years, providing a valuable service to those who can't go to a Notary, or just prefer the convenience of having the Notary come to them. Mobile Notaries typically charge for their mobile services in addition to any notarization fees. In relatively recent years, the loan and real estate industry has developed a need for Notary loan signing agents who guide a borrower through the process of signing the paperwork in a loan package, as well as witnessing and notarizing certain documents included in that packet. This provides an even greater potential for income to the mobile Notary. However, mobile Notaries can still make a very good living notarizing a myriad of non-loan documents without entering the loan signing industry at all. Becoming a Notary Public as an add-on service to your current employment or business is a good way to start your mobile Notary service. Not only will it give you an edge over competition for company positions and promotions, but will start you off with contacts and clients that will help your business quickly grow from part-time to full-time. This guide will show you how to start your own business as a mobile Notary Public either part-time or full-time.
