Astrologer Theodora Quinn has read all the books on positive thinking and manifestation, but finds its not as easy as The Secret makes it out to be. A passionate woman, Theodora struggles to stay on her spiritual path, despite the fact that an unpredictable teenage son, an eccentric opera-singing aunt, and an almost-ex-husband she cant resist make her doubt her ability to manifest anything but trouble. When actress Angelina Montez is killed after Theodora does her chart, and Theodoras ex is put in charge of the investigation, trouble takes on a whole new dimension.

This is a story about a grand love destroyed by the Communists regime established in an Eastern European country after 1944. Giuliano, Maria Luisa, and Stephan, three good friends persecuted by the dictatorial government are forced to emigrate to the United States and Italy. Life is difficult for all of them, but they do not forget each other. After 40 years of separation, their meeting takes place. For each one fate has prepared a surprise. . .

In 1940's rural New South Wales, Lilian has to make the hardest decision a woman can. She is forced to choose between her baby daughter and the love of her life, an Italian prisoner-of-war. Decades later an unexpected encounter with Francesca, the daughter she left behind, sets in motion a new chapter in both their lives.....

African Linguistics on the Prairie features select revised peer-reviewed papers from the 45th Annual Conference on African Linguistics, held at the University of Kansas. The articles in this volume reflect the enormous diversity of African languages, as they focus on languages from all of the major African language phyla. The articles here also reflect the many different research perspectives that frame the work of linguists in the Association for Contemporary African Linguistics. The diversity of views presented in this volume are thus indicative of the vitality of current African linguistics research. The work presented in this volume represents both descriptive and theoretical methodologies and covers fields ranging from phonetics, phonology, morphology, typology, syntax, and semantics to sociolinguistics, discourse analysis, language acquisition, computational linguistics and beyond. This broad scope and the quality of the articles contained within holds out the promise of continued advancement in linguistic research on African languages.

Harness argues very convincingly that through their patronage of the figurative arts, musical theater, and early opera, the Medici women reinforced their position and their image as powerful women and capable rulers.

This mystery/adventure, also a wholesome love-story for teens, unfolds in both Present-Day and Flashback modes. Teenager, Maria, emerging from a coma, struggles to remember her transatlantic cruise before the tragedy. In Flashback mode, the reader finds Maria cruising the Golden Moon with her aunt, the Chief Purser. Uncomfortable on the ocean, insecure amidst gifted musicians, Maria meets a handsome teen, Jeff (her first crush), and as they attempt to solve a shipboard mystery, her confidence grows. The reader is treated to an Italian cruise, beautiful ports-of-call and art works by the Masters. Romance is everywhere, but sly and dangerous characters abound. Maria anticipates her mother joining her and then visiting her grandfather's Villa. Then tragedy strikes. In the Present-Day segments, recovering from her injuries on one of Rome's seven hills, Maria gradually learns the fate of her friends.
