A leader in the New Thought movement illustrates his metaphysical philosophy of self-empowerment with quotations from Yeats, Blake, and the Bible as well as accounts of his personal experiences.

Before The Law of Attraction there was Neville Goddard and his message about changing reality through the power of the imagination. The author of ten inspirational books, Goddard was a popular speaker on metaphysical themes. In his 1952 publication The Power of Awareness, he voiced many of the ideas that are now in the mainstream of contemporary self-help circles, including the concept that your thoughts control your destiny and that in order to change your
