What does it mean to be almost healthy? For Daniel Selvakumar, it was being born with a heart defect that offered a slim chance of surviving past childhood. At 14 months old, he underwent the first of three open-heart surgeries. Grappling with his own mortality, Daniel accepted the big and small gifts of life – a close-knit family, lasting friendships, a business launched, a first love. In his own way, he sought to leave the world a bit better, whether by helping a friend struggling with drug addiction, coaching teenagers or brightening the lives of nurses and fellow hospital patients in his last days. Daniel's heart was deformed by its defect as much as it was enlarged by love. He used it to make each of his 25 years count, and for the brief season that he was alive, left his mark on the hearts of friends, family and strangers, changing them forever. In one of Daniel's final postings on social media, he outlines his approach for a life well lived – Live full, love hard, be grateful and own that shit. Eloquent, heartrending and pensive, Stay Gold is a glowing tapestry of a memoir told through the interwoven perspectives of Daniel, his parents and the people he loved. Poised between past and present with a gaze at the future never to be, Daniel's story asks how an almost healthy boy can find his place in a mostly healthy world, and how a single life can be meaningful when time is running out.

I am Ellie Belly. I am 7 years old. I am in Class 1J. My best friend is Cammy. I LOVE to doodle in class when Teacher is not looking. And my BIG secret is this: I can talk to animals! Really! One day, I hear a cry for help! It is a sunbird and she is in big, big trouble! I have to help Sunbird! But first, I have to find a way to sneak out of class without Teacher – or that pesky Megan – noticing! "Ellie Bellie: Follow that Bird!", the first book in the Ellie Belly series, is packed with fun facts about sunbirds and other feathered friends! "What is a sitting duck?" "Do you ruffle people's feathers?" Look inside to find out what these "birdy" idioms mean!

EMBRACE DYSLEXIA is an initiative by the Dyslexia Association of Singapore (DAS) which endeavours to foster greater awareness about dyslexia with the aim of helping everyone to understand both the strengths and the challenges in the lives of individuals who have dyslexia. An initiative of EMBRACE DYSLEXIA was to encourage individuals with dyslexia to share their personal stories so that they may become role models for the young students that are supported by DAS. More than 50 personal stories of dyslexia are included in this book all are individuals who have worked to make a difference in the fabric of Singapore and wish to instill in young students with dyslexia to strive for equal if not greater success in their educational journeys This book was released in Singapore's 50th anniversary, and contains the story of Former Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew a dyslexic, visionary, leader, father and builder of a Nation. Indeed, many of the contributors to the book cite Mr Lee as an inspiration to their own success, he gave them the determination and passion to pursue their dreams and passions. It is an inspiring read and gives hope to those families who have children with learning differences such as dyslexia.

“Unless you write yourself, you can’t know how wonderful it is; I always used to bemoan the fact that I couldn’t draw, but now I’m overjoyed that at least I can write. And if I don’t have the talent to write books or newspaper articles, I can always write for myself.”—ANN FRANK, A Diary of a Young Girl. And that was what I did, sitting at the kitchen table, pencil in hand, Oxford Dictionary of Current English and a pencil sharpener beside me. It was daunting at the beginning, putting pencil to paper, and I could not remember the number of times I stared blankly at the refrigerator facing me in the kitchen, scouring my mind to recollect memories of past events. Somehow, the encouraging words from the books I had read to prepare me for this journey seemed to ‘lubricate’ the long stagnant ‘gears’ of my mind and I ‘just do it’—the way I wanted it to be done.

A young girl living amongst ancient Egypt's golden pyramids is haunted by a story of a stolen red ruby that holds the key to one family's destiny. After her mother's death, Ava and her father struggle to make ends meet. With barely enough food to keep them fed, Ava starts out on the adventure of a lifetime to find the legendary ruby that could change their lives forever and grant them every wish they ever hoped for. With the help

This book seeks to present a comprehensive review of Singapore's ICT Masterplans in education, providing a rare behind-the-scenes look at policy planning, as well as the lessons learnt and insights gained from the past decade of the use of ICT in teaching and learning. Since 1997 (when the First Masterplan was launched) to 2008, schools and teachers have made great strides in their use of ICT for education at all levels: primary, secondary and junior college. The seeds of this change were planted in the Pioneer Years (1980-1996) which marked the pre-Masterplan period, and they began to germinate in the momentous Foundation Years (1997-2002) when the First Masterplan got underway. The subsequent period of the Engaging Years (2003-2008) outlines the growth of the Second Masterplan, while the Future Years present the vision of what the future of ICT will look like in Singapore schools in 2009 and beyond. This comprehensive coverage of the evolution of ICT use in Singapore schools includes views and reflections from key individuals involved in the planning and implementation of the two ICT Masterplans, students, teachers, ICT experts, and policy makers. It also includes articles detailing significant projects and programmes of the First and Second ICT Masterplans. Stanley is an Elder of the Asian Institute of Technology Christian Fellowship (AITCF) based in Bangkok with over 100 families from 20 nations in the 50-nations university campus. He is an alumnus of strong discipleship-focused global organisations, The Navigators and the Haggai Institute. His personal experience with MIND FASTING and daily entrenchment in authentic discipleship and intentional disciple-making has given him the joy of a strong foundation and experiencing an intimate walk and a deeper life with Jesus, culminating in direct encounters that have led to many God-ordained miracles (including his two deaths) over the years that are recorded in this book "Divine Encounters @ Marketplace" Volume 1. Since 2002, Stanley's life perspective has been and continues to be shaped by God's vision to him of "China and Many Nations", which was broadened to "Global" vision in 2008. His life motto is: Pleasing God. Connecting Nations. Reaching People. "I first met Stanley in the summer 2019 in London UK, he passed on his book to me. As I began to read, I realise the rich revelation that it contained, I have recommended this book to many people. The message and revelation and testimony it contains is life changing. " The Very Reverend Alan Dickinson OSL (Newcastle, UK) "After reading a few chapters, I thought to myself : there are 3 possibilities about Stanley - a deluded man, a lunatic or a prophet. After reading half the book and conversing with him for 2 hours, I concluded that he is indeed a prophet and a man of God.” Prof Low Kee Yang (Singapore)

“My friend Stanley Cheng’s book will inspire you and encourage you. Based on his extensive (and at times amazing) experience as a follower of Jesus Christ – you will not be disappointed. Equally important, Stanley is a man who ‘walks the talk’ – a man whose life reflects the love and wisdom and joy of Christ. Enjoy!!!” The Honorable Gregory W. Slayton (USA) Former US Ambassador Founder & Chairman of Family First Global
“My Pastor passed your book to me and I could not put it down. A prophetic evangelist in the marketplace. Such a rarity, I truly believe meeting you was a Divine Appointment at a critical moment. You and Linda are a complete inspiration.” Annie Barr MBE (Newcastle, UK)
“I have gone through your book. Excellent work and very inspirational.” Prof David Lee Seung Hwan (South Korea) “I have finished reading your book. It is an enjoyable book that is easy to read. More importantly, I get inspired by your life testimony. I know that I have a lot to learn from you...” Dr Michelle Liew (Malaysia) “I read your book and passed it on to a good friend who needs to believe in a God of the possible. Glad that you tell of HIS-stories.” Dr Rachel R (Honduras) “...you are so blessed and chosen as one of God's instruments, which empowered you to advocate as God's living miracle. Thank you so much for sharing in your book and showing us the way and the only way to God, to heaven and to eternity. May you open many peoples’ eyes and hearts and lead them to God. Amen.” Sun Shuna (China) “I’m really touched and impressed by the story of your life, that divine encounters with God. God has really chosen you to glorify His name and did it in a mighty way. God bless you, your family and your ministry.” Mary Shahnazaryan (Armenia ) “...I just finished reading your book few days ago. It's a great blessing for me! May you continue to listen and do what He planned you to do for His Kingdom.” Rey Calabdan (Philippines) ? “...Thank you for being an inspiration & encouragement to many...You are truly God's Kingdom Ambassador to the nations.” Tun Boon Chiam (Brunei) “Having read your book this afternoon, I would like to change your interpretation for ALIVE to “Always Live In Vivid Eternity” to match your life in Chr1st because it is so amazing and vivid. May your book encourage more and more godly people to live out Chr1st life and manifest the glory of God” Yu Shi Jie (Hong Kong) “Thank you for your wonderful book. Reading it is indeed a great blessing from the Lord. Praise Him!” Cailan (Mauritius) “In the book, Stanley experienced 2 deaths. 1st time he saw heaven and came back to life. 2nd time he saw hell. However what impressed me most was how God led Stanley each step of the way and blessed him and prosper him in the marketplace and also in his ministry. I would recommend reading it for inspiration.” Margaret Lim-Conan (Canada) “I think there were at least 100 people there at Metro YMCA on 8/3/16. Thank you for reaching out to me, Stanley. I've just given one of your books to another colleague...Thank you too for autographing for my pre-believing boss who is drawing nearer to God's love...Your experiences are such a blessing to us.” Serene Chan (Singapore) “...I have finished reading your book the divine encounters, very inspired and spiritually encouraged and strengthen...must promote this book, many would like to purchase this book for personal reading or as gifts for friends!" Angela Low (JB, Malaysia) "...Read your impactful book. Stanley, you are a natural Evangelist. I have been mentoring 2 men in London – both attending Holy Trinity Brompton. They are good friends – Nicolai Thompson and Andrew Tipping. Both are professionals. Please meet them on my behalf." Jim Chew (New Zealand/Singapore) "Stanley's book will inspire your walk with Christ. His love, passion and commitment for the Lord has helped many in the marketplace. Signs and wonders will follow those who believe in Jesus." Tony Tay (New Zealand)

The essays in this volume explore communication across cultures using an interdisciplinary approach to language teaching and learning, mediated by the growing field of educational linguistics. Topics include the use of English as a medium of wider communication and the growth of national varieties of English throughout the world. An international array of distinguished contributors includes scholars from China, Great Britain, Hong Kong, India, Israel, Nigeria, Singapore, Taiwan, Ukraine, and the United States. This collection suggests that language diversity is a unifying force in a globally interdependent world.

Singapore has few natural resources but, in a relatively short history, its economic and social development and transformation are nothing short of remarkable. Today Singapore is by far the most successful exemplar of material development in Southeast Asia and it often finds itself the envy of development in Southeast Asia and it often finds itself the envy of developed countries. Furthermore over the last three and a half decades the ruling party has presided over the formation of a thriving community of Singaporeans who love and are proud of their country.
