Love Addict? Don't stop reading! For days I struggled to find the perfect words - the wow factor - for this description. I wanted to craft something that would prompt you to read this book immediately. The more I thought about it, the more I realized I couldn't think of anything better to say than the truth. My name is Bri, aka Lipstick Preacher, and I'm a recovering love addict. I can already imagine what you're thinking. A love addict? No, I'm not talking about being addicted to sex or having multiple relationships and partners. As a young girl and into adulthood, I obsessed over the idea of being in love and assumed it was an easy thing to attain if you were a decent person. No one in my life explained to me the importance of love and how much power it holds. I developed a deep desire to achieve love and had no idea where it came from. The desire for love is embedded in the core of our being, and when we encounter it, good or bad, it can shape the essence of who we are. After many failed relationships and encounters they both want to give Elliot the childhood he deserves. As the three of them enjoy time together watching fireworks, baking cakes and collecting conkers, Isla begins to see a softer side to charming Leo, with his twinkling eyes and mischievous sense of humour. And, despite herself, she begins to fall for him. But does Leo feel the same way? Isla knows their situation is complicated but is it too complicated for true love... or will the year end with a happy new beginning for them all? A glorious, feel-good romance that will make you want to snuggle up under a warm blanket with a hot chocolate and the one you love. If you enjoy reading Sarah Morgan, Jenny Oliver and Lucy Diamond this book is for you. What readers are saying about Coming Home to Maple Cottage: 'LOVED, LOVED, LOVED this book!...
