This is a book of history, ethics, and philosophy. It is a record of teachings passed down through the generations from the East and the West. It contains the fullness of the sealed covenant established between man and the laws of the universe. As we evolve as a race, we take things out of our lives because we better understand who we are and what we have achieved. The divine refers to the laws of nature and the universe that guide us in our everyday lives. The creator that guides our everyday lives is not something that we should worship or pray to out of fear or love; it is something that remains unseen and works in natural forces to explain all the events that happen on Earth. It is merely a force and it is not necessary to belong to a group to experience the light. The path to the light is straight and broad. The creator of the universe is a divine and intellectual force, by which all things came into being. The sealed covenant is a pact between all of humanity to the world around us and the universal laws that guide our everyday lives to come together and love one another and come to make the world a better place for all people. This shall usher in the evolution of religious traditions and humanity to a new age of prosperity.

This book expresses not all my opinions about life, but how teenagers, young-adults view their world around them and how it affects them. Throughout my poems the word "I" is used to express everyone who is reading it, not specifically me. It includes how teenagers feel at times and how it feels to walk in another person's shoes. My poetry is a collection of poems of things I have written over the years. The poems in this book, mostly will resonate with all, its about love, pain, anger and specifically the nature of people how they think.

Paige Herbert is the embodiment of everything he should avoid with a judge for a father and a classic car mechanic for a mother. But her enticing curves, random bouts of rambling, and love for a shelter dog drive him to break that single law he's made for himself. Paige is leaving town at the first decent job offer, and Dash has sworn off all things that spark a passion in him. So why can't they keep away from each other? When their pasts come calling, Paige and Dash have to decide if love is worth detouring from their own carefully marked courses.
