In Korean Folk Songs, music teacher Robert Choi shares 14 of Korea's best-loved classic children's songs—with musical scores and lyrics in both Korean and English. Born and bred in Chicago, Choi's parents raised their son with a keen appreciation for their native Korean culture. The traditional melodies they taught him left a deep impression. Included in this collection are well-known children's songs such as "Splashing Around" and "Mountain Rabbit" that incorporate fun actions and gestures. Also traditional standards that have been passed down from generation to generation, such as "Blue Birds" and "Arirang." Each Korean children's song features a musical score with the lyrics in Korean script and romanized form, and an English version of the lyrics. Historical and cultural notes are included and for the children's songs, Choi describes the accompanying actions. An audio CD contains recordings of all the songs, along with tracks that allow you to sing along. Every page has beautiful full-color illustrations of

This singalong song book is my private collection of sing-along songs gathered from the public domain of the Internet. It is a special compilation of my favorites country, folk and Xmas songs going back many years and it is only here temporarily to get it printed. If you happen to run into this, please feel free to have it printed for your own private use. The book is not intended to be sold for commercial reasons or mass distribution. I have added the guitar chords but I cannot guarantee the words or these chords are completely accurate. This book is for your fun and it contains 300 great sing-along favorites. I have found that when you have a group, and someone who can play guitar, banjo, mandolin or ukulele, (these chord tabs are added in the back) having several copies of this book to hand out makes a fantastic sing-along - and a lot of laughs.
