Being a complete statement of all the law from every source. This book provides a comprehensive study of the neglected story of the involvement of the women's movement with criminal justice policy in the 20th century. Taking the topic from the 'suffragette' era to the early days of 'second-wave' feminism, the book argues that criminal justice policy has been a continual concern for feminists.

A biographical record of contemporary achievement together with a key to the location of the original biographical notes.
