Are you interested in learning Spanish but prefer to do it on your own, in your free time, in your car or at home? Have you been desperately trying to learn the language but simply can't find a way to take the first steps? Are you looking for the most sensible, quickest and most reliable way to learn Spanish where the whole method is backed by reliable scientific research? If you answered yes to at least one of the questions above, then this guide is exactly for you. For those who've despaired of ever learning a foreign language, here, finally, is a book that will make the words stick long-term. "To have another language is to possess a second soul."

?Charlemagne Possibly the most feared challenge to learning Spanish is the challenge of memory; there are just too many words and too many rules to remember. For every new word we learn, we seem to forget two old ones, and as a result, fluency can seem out of reach. That is exactly why 'Learn Spanish In Your Car' was written. According to Professor Elfrieda H. Hieber from the University of California, Berkeley, The 100 most frequent words account for about 50% of the words in a typical text and the 1000 most frequent words for about 70%. Therefore it is evident that the first 1000 words of learning a language can provide you with an immense boost on your journey to master the language. In 'Learn Spanish In

Although the life of Federico García Lorca (1898–1936) was tragically brief, the Spanish poet and dramatist created an enduring body of work of international importance. This selection of 55 poems from a 1921 collection represents some of García Lorca's finest work. Imbued with Andalusian folklore, rich in metaphor and complex spirituality, they attest to the poet's popularity as one of Spain's most widely read authors.
