Traditional Chinese edition of The Opposite of Loneliness: Essays and Stories. This amazing book of essays of Marina Keegan, a Yale student who died in a car crash just five days after she graduated magna cum laude from Yale University, is an instant New York Times bestseller, not because of her untimely death - she was published before, but on her own merit. She was to begin her job at the New Yorker - the unsurpassed recognition of her talent - following her graduation.

What's the secret to surviving your freshman year of high school? Emily Kessler thinks she has it all figured out. She eats, sleeps and trains for competitive swimming. All she has to do is keep her grades high and swim times short -- short enough to live up to her sister Sara's. But walking the crowded maze of unfamiliar high school hallways is like diving headfirst into shark-infested waters. Shark #1: Dominique, her biggest competition on the swim team and all-around mean girl. Shark #2: The adorable and popular Ben Kale... Emily can't resist his smile no matter how hard she tries. When the pressure builds to the point where Emily isn't sure she can stay afloat, she begins to question the strict path her life has always followed. Maybe there is more to life than studying and swimming. Maybe the secret to surviving high school is just to have a little fun. The hit mobile game Surviving High School comes to life in an original novel about perfection, failure, and following your dreams.
