Four Generations Under One Roof was once published in the United States in section translation, and it is hailed as: One of the most acclaimed novels. Four Generations Under One Roof is Mr. Lao She's longest time to create a work, and his writing ideas have been generated since 1941. It took seven years to formally start the draft in 1944 and finish it in 1948. He once commented that this was what he thought was the best book written. However, looking back on the whole process, he described, This is not just writing things, but it is life! Hu Jiqing (Mrs. Lao She) wrote, The novel expresses the patriotism of the people of Beiping through the stories of these people.
