

Chinese edition of The Power of Your Subconscious Mind. It is as powerful, practical today as it was in 1963 when it was first published. The suggestions in the book for developing our subconscious mind are well defined and have proven effective for almost fifty years. In Traditional Chinese. Distributed by Tsai Fong Books, Inc.

The 12 Powers of Mane-artnow

Co-authored by three Spiritual Thought Leaders, Rev. Dr. Bil Holton, Rev. Dr. Cher Holton, and Rev. Dr. Paul Hasselbeck, this cutting edge book focusing on the Twelve Powers (an expanded and updated adaptation of the 2010 bestseller, PowerUP: Revisiting the Twelve Powers as Accelerated Abilities, by Unity ministers Paul Hasselbeck and Cher Holton) not only amplifies the previous book, but it provides succinct, easy-to-read, scientific documentation for each of the twelve powers from the fields of positive psychology, neuroscience, quantum physics, sociology, positivity research, and neuro-theology. If you're ready to explore your extraordinary nature - and become a wiser, more powerful, more phenomenal you - this remarkable book is for you. There is an extraordinary you at your core. All you have to do is get the ordinary you out of the way by claiming your Twelve Powers at your highest, most elevated level of consciousness. Just imagine being able to live life more fully, more consciously, more masterfully! Just imagine expressing your extraordinary nature in every situation you experience! Just imagine being the best person you can be--no matter what, no matter where! This book shows you how! Based on the Twelve Powers originally described by Unity co-founder Charles Fillmore, this book provides a state-of-the-art, practical approach to understanding and using the Powers every day to master the art of living. In addition to in-depth explanations of the Twelve Powers, the book also includes a description of each Power from four levels of Consciousness, shares scientific research supporting each Power, and provides a section called "Putting It Into Practice" that provides exercises to become familiar with using each power in a practical way. This book is an updated and expanded version of PowerUP: The Twelve Powers Revisited as Accelerated Abilities, by Paul Hasselbeck and Cher Holton, with permission of these authors.

2014 Reprint of 1944 Edition. Full facsimile of the original edition, not reproduced with Optical Recognition Software. When Unity School first published "Christ Enthroned in Man" in 1937, it was presented as a book of exercises supplementary to Charles Fillmore's book "The Twelve Powers of Man" which was described as, "the greatest key to logical and rational expression of spiritual man that has ever been given to the public." These exercises instruct the readers of that book on how to apply the principles therein laid down, and how to awaken within the body, through the action of the mind, the undeveloped or sleeping faculties. These exercises are for the purpose of developing and bringing into action the mind's wonderful latent possibilities. This book is a story of how two teachers gave twenty students recognition for being the cause of their learning, for making the choice to learn for themselves, for being independent, capable, responsible, and powerful. It is a day-by-day description of a revolutionary five-day orientation that happened each year at the Mobile Open Classroom (MOBOC) in Los Angeles from 1971 to 1983. It is a true story of a real school (not a technical lesson plan), which (1) demonstrates timeless MOBOC concepts in action, (2) educates the reader in respectful and motivating behaviors toward middle schoolers, and (3) creates both a longing for this kind of success with teens and a sense of urgency for educational reform. It is a book for parents, educators, and activists, and extraordinarily relevant to public education today. The story opens with Chris, a student who has been kicked out of five schools,
