Chaye Ha-Olam Ha-Ba is Abraham Abulafia's masterpiece, and a primer on prophetic Kabbalah. Prophetic Kabbalah is a special flavor of Jewish mysticism that owes its name to the Abulafian School. It is different from every other type of Kabbalah, because it does not talk about Sefirot, divine emanations, worlds, etc., but concerns itself with the inner transformation of the self and the direct experience of God. Through the aid of the Hebrew letters and various meditation techniques, the apprentice is led into higher states of consciousness, in order to know his God that created him. Enlightenment is the outcome of those techniques, which open the gates of a new world - the World to Come, or the Next World - to the sincere seeker. The system in Chaye revolves specifically around the 72 Names of God, which are the Expanded Name YHVH. It requires much concentration, because it is not easy, but it is one of the most astonishing techniques. Abulafia describes it as "scientific," because touching certain "divine frequencies" something is going to surely happen. Maybe it will not happen at once, but nevertheless the holy mechanism will begin its motion, and sooner or later this has to lead somewhere. "And when you prepare yourself to speak with your Creator, and ask to be informed of His Decrees, be mindful to clear your thought of all the clutter of the world. And wrap yourself with a prayer shawl, and wear Tefillin on your head and your hand if you can, so that you will be in awe and fear of the Shekinah, which is there with you at that time. And clean yourself and your clothes; and if you can, be sure that your clothes are all white, for all this is very conducive to the intention of love and awe. And if it takes place at night, light many candles until you can see well. Then, take ink, a quill, and a board in your hands. And let them stand as witnesses before you that you are coming to make worship to YHVH your God with joy and a good heart. And begin with a Permutation of a few letters with the many; and invert them and revolve them quickly, until your heart warms up with their revolutions. And pay attention to their motions and what you produce with their revolutions. And when you feel within you that your heart has heated up with the Permutations, and that with them you came to understand new things that you had not received by Kabbalah from another person and had not come to know through your intellectual contemplation, then now you are ready to receive the Influx." (Chaye Ha-Olam Ha-Ba)

Hebrew theologians conclude that Moses used these names to part the Red Sea, as well as to rule and meet the challenges he and his people endured. The secret mysteries of supernaturalism allowed Moses to break the yoke of human limitations. Moses passed this wisdom on to future generations. I received guidance to place each Name of God in the cryptograms you will see and use. CD recordings and Divination Cards can also enhance your use of the cryptograms to feel the mystical vibrations of Source that move through the currents of Sound and Light. As you review what the Names of God offer for healing and enlightenment, consider the remarkable balance the Divine offers and has offered for countless years through these iterations of sacred names revealed through Divine Guidance. Moses discovered these ever-present gifts. Over the centuries many scholars, religions, and healers aware of the miracles within the 72 names, continued to pass them on for generations. What mysteries and healing qualities of these cryptograms will you explore? Merely viewing the cryptograms with an open mind and heart results in relaxation, balance and activates Light and Sound. Adding the orchestration of tuning forks increases the vibration. As if by magick, the cryptograms evoke the Inner Healer. Balance, health and success are experienced. The Timeless Cryptograms of Healing(R) in this book represent the tip of the iceberg. Since 2013, the impetus to create hundreds of cryptograms consistently arises in my dream time, meditations, and when contemplating healing for a specific person. They are miraculous. They are timeless. They are the very active energy of the Light and Sound of Source. Each cryptogram consists of the three Hebrew Letters that represent a Sub-Name of God. Each letter corresponds to a specific musical tone. In addition to the tuning fork related to each letter, an additional fork stimulates the pineal gland. The I AM fork strikes the others to create an orchestration of tones and overtones within the Oneness of the Universe. Seed-like vibrations of potential that help achieve healing and enlightenment are imbedded within each individual. The sight and sound of the cryptogram activates these seeds to grow and expand. The orchestra of Light and Sound initiates the power of the Name of God, and harmonious waves of healing and balance.

If you have read the other books in the "Tapping Miracles Series" you know that I try to provide new ways of applying Meridian Tapping. Meridian Tapping has been PROVEN to work, there is no doubt about that. We know that there are several ways Meridian Tapping can be used. We know that there are several ways to approach the life of spirit. Both Spirit and Meridian Tapping are based on universal principles that I think most, if not all of us agree is real and true. Since both Spirit and Meridian Tapping are so diverse, yet universal at the same time, I think it is more than appropriate to combine the Power of Spiritual Paths and Meridian Tapping. Meridian Tapping is like a universal key. It can unlock the potential in every single modality we introduce it to. In this book, we will apply Meridian Tapping and The 72 Holy Names of God that has been gleaned through the Sanctified Paths of Jewish Mysticism known as the Kabbalah. Although This book is not specifically about the Kabbalah, it does have veins of the mystical tradition throughout it. This book is a bit longer than the others in this series because we will be going through every single Name of God and doing a tapping session with each one . Once you incorporate the Names into your tapping practice a new world of possibilities can open up for you. The names themselves are hidden within the Bible. Within the text lies the keys to spiritual and material growth. Within the names of God resides the secrets of the cosmos. Within the bible hides the 72 names of God.

When you look at these glorious, mystical Sigils in a specific state of mind, magic happens. The magic happens within you and is reflected in your world. This book contains two types of magic. Contemplation Magic can give you great insight and wisdom, and will help you develop abilities and create new aspects of your personality. Results Magic can be used to make changes in the world around you. This is the simplest form of magic known, but it works. Each Sigil of Power contains one of The 72 Names of God. These are mighty three-letter words, written in Hebrew. These sacred names are a trigger for real magic. There is one small problem - there's lots of misinformation out there when it comes to the 72 Names. Although there are some first-rate books, and even a few useful websites, there's a lot of poorly researched material that will lead you away from the magic. Often the names are incorrectly listed, badly drawn or their secrets are concealed. Here, the 72 Names of God are presented as visual Sigils, complete with the secret Words of Power that activate them. There are detailed instructions for working on inner change and outer magic. More than 300 individual powers are explored in this book. The Names are written as clearly and beautifully as possible, bound by a solid circle to enhance your focus. Each letter was handcrafted, based on traditional techniques and the visual requirements of modern readers. The Names in this book are the most accurate and accessible that you can find. You will discover how to: Use the names to access angelic power. Work with Contemplation Magic to gain insight and wisdom. Use Results Magic to change yourself and your world. Attract the things, people and events that will make you happy. Banish pain, loneliness, sadness and regret. Develop new character traits. Discover your true will and inner needs. When you work with these Sigils of Power you will gain a stronger connection to yourself, and the better you know yourself the easier it is for all your desires to manifest. That is the real power of Divine Magic.

Christians face a conundrum when it comes to naming God, for if God is unnamable, as theologians maintain, he can also be called by every name. His proper name is thus an open-ended, all-encompassing list, a mystery the Church embraces in its rhetoric, but which many Christians have found difficult to accept. To explore this conflict, Valentina Izmirlieva examines two lists of God's names: one from The Divine Names, the classic treatise by Pseudo-Dionysius, and the other from The 72 Names of the Lord, an amulet whose history binds together Kabbalah and Christianity, Jews and Slavs, Palestine, Provence, and the Balkans. This unexpected juxtaposition of a theological treatise and a magical amulet allows Izmirlieva to reveal lists' rhetorical potential to create order and to function as both tools of knowledge and of power. Despite the two different visions of order represented by each list, Izmirlieva finds that their uses in Christian practice point to a complementary relationship between the existential need for God's protection and the metaphysical desire to submit to his infinite majesty—a compelling claim sure to provoke discussion among scholars in many fields.
