The art of American belly dancing was born in San Francisco, in the liberated 60s and 70s. Here, in rare footage, are the the great San Francisco belly dancing pioneers shown at the height of their powers. At the heart of the film are four classic interpretations of the dance. Two young dancers, Katarina and Taia, help each other through a first nightclub performance and deal with some of the social problems Belly Dancers must face to practice their art form. We see Balladine actually teaching a class, filled with enthusiastic dancers. The great DeAnn performs outside at San Franciscos historic Ferry Building, an unforgettable moment.
